The Editor's column

By S. R. PADDOCK

We feel like a housewife who has gotten her spring housecleaning out of the way early. Milburn Bros. started the widening of Campbell street at our end.

With all light and telephone poles removed, our block is about the darkest street in town. Hope there will be no delay in the installation of those mercury lights.

Mt. Prospect business men tell us that a wave of adult delinquency has broken out there in the form of shoplifting. One woman helped herself to eight pairs of stockings. When caught, she offered to pay for the stockings if she could pick out her size.

The storekeeper consented, but the woman returned them the next day, asking for a refund. Another shoplifter was not very happy because the business man she attempted to rob, insisted upon telling her husband.

Directors of Northwest Community Hospital association, with some new blood added, will elect officers next Monday evening. The need for a hospital in the Northwest area is becoming greater day by day.

Those hundreds of new residents are not immune to hospital care. Besides, the adjoining hospitals do not have an inexhaustible supply of beds.

Representative Sprague told a group of suburban editors last week that minority representation should be recognized in a democratic government. He favors minority representation in the legislature in every house district. He said that except on strictly party legislation Democratic and Republican members of a district join forces for the welfare of all their constituents.

Here is a good plank that both Arlington Heights groups missed in the campaign, "lower taxes." An Arlington industrialist told us Tuesday morning, before the votes were counted, that he is going to move his plant out of Arlington. "Too high taxes," he said.

We know that the winners in Tuesday's election will be looking in this column for the editor's opinion on the results. The majority has spoken. That should be enough for all of us.

Our congratulations go to those winners.

An Arlington Heights woman called us up Wednesday and wanted to know if she could get an immediate reduction on her current water bill. We told her that the new members of the board could not make the promised reduction until they actually took office May 3.

We have great respect for the plan commission of Arlington Heights. We stayed with that body Monday night until 11:30 while they argued and argued over final approval of Westgate Unit No. 2.

The subdivider had done everything that the board had requested but it took an executive session before a majority of the members could reach an agreement.

Some of the members fought long and hard, but when defeat came their way they smilingly bowed to the wishes of the majority.

We hope the defeated candidates in Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect show the same democratic spirit.

Arlington electorate who drove their cars to the polls Tuesday could "vote for free." Hoods were placed over the meters adjacent to the village hall.

A lot of praise throughout the United States has been showered upon Jones E. Salk, who developed the vaccine against polio. A lot of praise is likewise due our local doctors who have volunteered their services for the innoculations.

It is an example of how the medical profession is ever ready to step in when an emergency arises. On the eve of the polio season, such an emergency exists.

As one who is acquainted with the red tape that will exist in municipal government as long as there are engineers and lawyers, we hope those who put into office the Civic Service party will not expect them to make good on their campaign planks within a few weeks.

Some of those problems have been facing the village for a long time.

The new City of Rolling Meadows is in a somewhat similar situation. It must start from scratch. For instance its water rates are really high and before it can think about reducing them, it may have to buy the existing water system.

Only vehicle to use the 200 block on W. Campbell st., Arlington Heights this week was the Good Humor truck. There is really not much difference between kids and street pavers when there is an ice cream bar in sight on a hot day.

Weber, who ran for 4 year terms, and Forrest F. Davis, who ran for a 2 year term to fill a vacancy on the board.

Also running on the ticket was William F. Neumann, who was re-elected police magistrate, by a 2 to 1 majority over his oppenent Albert C. Peters, who ran on the Progress party ticket.

Break Ground Soon For Westgate Shopping Center

The Westgate Park & Shops, one of the first shopping center developments to be located in Arlington Heights, was announced today by Herbert H. Heyman, partner in Landau and Perlman, Chicago business property developers. Construction will start within 45 days on the center and it is scheduled to open early next year.

In addition to the 12 stores planned, Westgate will also include a 2,500 square foot medical center with space for approximately 15 doctors and dentists.

To be located on a 4 acre site on the southeast corner of 2 main thoroughfares — Campbell ave. and Wilke rd.—it will have 45,000 square feet of rentable area. According to surveys, 33,424 persons live within a 3 mile area which includes the Rolling Meadows homes development, directly west of the center, and Arlington Heights and its new Westgate No. 1 and Westgate No. 2 subdivisions.

THERE WILL BE parking space for 350 cars in the center on the front and east and west sides of the buildings. Almost 4 times the amount of space of the buildings proper will be devoted to parking, trees and shrubbery and canopied walks. Of a modern design, Westgate will have a weather protecting walkway around the front and sides of the center.

A lease has been signed by Landau and Perlman with the National Tea Company which will occupy the largest store in the center, approximately 12,000 square feet. The air-conditioned store will have a fresh baked goods department, self-service meats, magic-eye doors, and will feature one of the chains largest frozen foods sections.

W. A. Hornsby Co., Inc., will operate the eighth store in its chain of northern Illinois variety stores in the center. The 5,000 square foot store will be completely self-service. Decor of the store interior will be designed to suit the modern exterior of the center.

A LEASE has also been signed for a 4,000 square foot Westgate Hardware store. It will carry complete lines of national brand hardware items.

There will also be space in the center for a junior department store, children's wear store, women's wear store, family shoe store, cleaner, and a self-service drug store.

The population of Arlington Hts. has more than doubled in the past 5 years. In 1950, the suburb had 8,700 residents, and the present population is estimated at 17,700. During the last 4 years, 2,238 homes have been built.

Architect for the center is Sidney C. Finck of Chicago, J. Thurber Stowell, associate. Real Estate Research Corporation conducted economic research on the project. Richard L. Nelson, executive vice president, was in charge.

Red Tape Delays Installation Of Crossing Gates

Demands for automatic crossing gates in Arlington Heights were renewed this week as another railway tragedy was narrowly averted.

In September, 1953, three boys were killed by a train at the State rd. crossing.

Friday night two fast Chicago and North Western railway trains sped through Arlington Heights with both the Evergreen and State rd. crossings unprotected by safety gates.

An alert motorist, Mrs. Richard Eaton, 111 S. Dunton, who was at the station to meet the 11:57 train, noticed the open gates and notified Arlington Heights police. A passenger and a freight train passed each other at Evergreen st. with both gates wide open.

POLICE WERE unable to gain entry to the Evergreen st. tower, where a guard manually operates the gates.

Firemen were summoned with ladder equipment and found the North Western employee asleep across a trap door.

After he was finally roused, the operator admitted he had been drinking all day. An unopened bottle of wine was on the tower floor. Police were unable to question him at length because he spoke little English.

A substitute operator for the tower was immediately dispatched by railroad officials.

In response in inquiries, Quentin M. Lambert of the railroad's public relations department, said the North Western ordered materials in June, 1954, to install automatic gates.

The village will be expected to provide $20,000 of the total cost of $115,307, for the crossing gates. This money will be forthcoming out of the village's motor fuel tax allotment.

Village engineers approved the plan last December.

The village has withheld approval of the contract with the railway company because the railroad asks that the municipality pay for the maintenance of the lights.

Lambert said the railroad will install the gates as soon as the public agencies clean up the red tape which has been stalling the improvement for months.

First, Second Graders to Get Free Inoculations

The new Salk vaccine for polio will be offered to all first and second grade children, attending both public and parochial schools, in Arlington Heights. The vaccine will be administered by local physicans in each school.

The vaccine will be provided free by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, the local Nurses club will provide the necessary syringes and needles, and the doctors are donating their services for this project. Members of the Nurses club will also assist.

Parents of 1st and 2nd grades received a letter and a form from the schools early this week. These parents are urged to complete the form and return it to their school promptly, as the completed form is required before the vaccine can be obtained.

THE FIRST 2, in the series of 3 injections will be administered at the schools. The third, which is a booster shot and is to follow 7 months later, must be obtained at the office of a physician. The first 2 injections provide immunization for the 7 months period. The dates for the first vaccinations are as follows:

St. James school, April 25; Our Lady of the Wayside school, April 26; South school, April 27; Dryden school, April 28; St. Peter Lutheran school, April 29; North school, May 3, and Ridge school, May 4.

Mrs. Thelma Carroll, school nurse, has been named "Program Coordinator" for the village of Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Carroll reports that the serum has not as yet arrived in the village and the above dates remain tentative until it does arrive.

A kick-off dinner was held last week for more than 100 workers at Faith Lutheran church in Arlington Heights.

Two of the 5 concerts to be given during the fall and winter season of 1955 and 1956 will be Whittemore and Lowe, duo-pianists, and the Vienna Academy chorus.

All concerts will be held in the new gymnasium at Arlington Heights high school.

Cost for the entire series is $6 for adults and $3.50 for students. Memberships may be obtained from Association headquarters, 5 S. State rd.

Two Injured When Cars Collide, Impact Causes One To Crash House

Two persons were seriously injured in a 2-car collision at Park st. and Vail ave., Arlington Heights, Saturday evening.

Richard C. McCarthy, 1432 N. Latrobe, Chicago, was driving east on Park when his auto was struck by another driven by Paul Florez Martinez, 230 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, which was traveling north on Vail.

According to the police report Martinez's auto struck the McCarthy car on the right front fender, and the impact hurled the car 61 feet, crossing the lawn of the Edwin Guenther home, 445 S. Vail, and crashing into the front porch.

McCarthy suffered lacerations of the scalp and right knee, and fractured ribs, and his wife suffered a fractured pelvis and multiple contusions. Dr. Robert Muench was called to the scene of the accident, and the injured were later removed to Resurrection hospital.

Both autos were badly damaged and property damage included stoop, iron porch railing, shrubs and lawn of the Guenther home.

Martinez was booked for driving under the influence of liquor, no driver's license, speeding and failure to yield right of way. He carried no insurance. He has been released on $250 bond.

Grand Jury Indicts Eight Local Youths

Seven Palatine youths and one from Arlington Heights were handed 13 indictments this week in connection with a recent series of robberies in the 2 villages.

Judge Richard Austin, chief justice of criminal court, will assign a trial judge for the youths Monday.

Those indicted and released on bond are Paul Schaeffer, John Wehmer, Harold Sands, Alvin Pittenger, Norman Young, Norman Nelson, and Robert Comminger, all of Palatine township, and John Michaels of Arlington Heights.

Michaels and Wehmer are faced with 3 indictments, Sands with 2, and all others 1. Bond, posted Thursday, was $5,000 per indictment.

Trial is expected to take place within 6 or 8 weeks.

Joe Meek To Speak At Chamber's Ladies Night Dinner May 5

Joe Meek, defeated 1954 Republican candidate for U.S. Senator and president of the Illinois Federation of Retail associations, will be main speaker May 5 at a Ladies Night meeting of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce.

The dinner will be at 6:45 p.m. in Faith Lutheran church. Tickets may be purchased from Donald R. Hartman, Daniel W. Senne, or Everette H. Lindgren.

Meek will discuss his opposition to efforts by President Eisenhower and labor secretary Mitchell to extend minimum wage and overtime pay protections to retail stores now exempted by the law.

Opposition to expanded protection is based on so-called violations of "state's rights" and ballooning payroll costs for retailers.

To Be Discharged

Pfc. James Trava, son of Eva Trava of Arlington Heights, arrived at Ft. Sheridan Tuesday, after serving 18 months in Korea and Japan.

Jim, who has been in service 2 years expects to be discharged Saturday.

CANCER — MAN'S CRUELEST ENEMY!

This year 200,000 American people will die from cancer! Men, women and children—no age is free from cancer.

Here is an enemy that strikes silently, seldom indicating its beginnings by the familiar warnings of disease—pain, fever, a run-down feeling or prostration. By the time pain is felt from cancer, it can rarely be treated effectively.

Cancer strikes one in four. Out of every sixteen people, four will have cancer—and three will die. One could have been saved by early diagnosis, but the other two will die of types of cancer that future research must control. These odds are terrifying!

There is something all can do right now—put our dollars in the fight against this dread disease. Funds already contributed have made possible, in just a few years, more progress than in all previous history. Education, service and research constitute the attack on cancer—and the attack depends on gifts.

You may help the cause by giving to the volunteer who calls on you, the amount you would like to contribute or you may write a check payable to the American Cancer Society, and send it to the American Cancer Society in care of Arlington Heights National Bank, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

The American people have never been beaten in a war by an enemy we could SEE—let's give our doctors, scientists and research experts the ammunition needed to find and stamp out this killer.

May you be rewarded most generously for whatever you are able to give.

Open Bids for School Library; Change School Boundaries

Bids were opened on a new Junior high school library to be constructed above the home economics department, at the April 12 meeting of the Arlington Height elementary school board. No action was taken on the bids, except to refer them to the architect for further study and recommendations.

FUNDS FOR the library are available from the bond issue approved by the voters in January 1954. Since the board received favorable bids at that time for the construction of additions to the Ridge and South schools, bonds for only $360,000, of the $410,000 approved by the voters was issued.

The new library can be constructed at a minimum cost, inasmuch as the original construction was so planned, with a concrete roof deck above the home economics department, that the building of the second story would be relatively simple. In addition, two walls of the new library quarters, represented by higher portions of the present building, are already in existence.

The present library, which has come to be much too small for the current enrollment of the school, will be converted to a room for educable mentally handicapped children. This room would serve not only children from this district, but would also provide facilities, on a tuition basis, for other schools in the Arlington Heights area.

THE BOARD also approved a plan to operate three kindergarten sections daily in the North school next year and to make certain changes in the boundary line between the Ridge school and the North school. Both actions were designed to enable the North school to accommodate expected increases in enrollment without the necessity of double sessions in the lower grades.

Three sessions of kindergarten daily, will necessitate additional bus transportation for those who use this service. However, by beginning earlier than the usual 9:15 a.m. and by having a session during the middle of the day, 2 classrooms can be made to accommodate 6 kindergarten classes. Three teachers, will, of course, be assigned to these 6 classes.

The new boundary between the Ridge school and the North school will be as follows: Chestnut from the railway to Hawthorne; Hawthorne from Chestnut to Dunton; Dunton from Hawthorne to Oakton; Oakton from Dunton to Douglas; Douglas from Oakton to Olive; Olive from Douglas to Dryden; Dryden from Olive to Thomas. This new line will shift to the Ridge school that part of the North school area which is substantially as close to the Ridge school as to the North school.

The board also adopted a resolution to accept, for future school purposes, a plot of ground to be donated to the school district by Reuter Home Builders, Inc. This site is located in the Westgate Development 2, which is south of Campbell ave.

Girl Scouts Ready to Sell Cookies

Girl Scouts—seniors, intermediates and brownies — in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Rolling Meadows and Wheeling will begin selling boxes of cookies tomorrow and Saturday.

There are about 1600 girls in these neighborhoods of District IV of the Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county, and they are joining their sister scouts for this first coucil-wide cookie sale.

The boxes contain sandwich cookies with chocolate, lemon, vanilla and custard fillings and the saesgirls will point out that at least one of the flavors will appear to every member of a family, and most individuals will enjoy the whole assortment. The cookies are priced at 40c a box.

A good program for Girl Scouts in the whole area is made possible by council-planning which includes adequate training for volunteer leaders. Camping, an important phase of the total program, is receiving concentrated thought and planning now as arrangements are being made for summer day-camping in 6 forest preserve locations and for 2-week-session camping at Hickory Hill near Edgerton, Wis.

All of this continuing effort for a fine program for all ages of Scouts in this area will be aided by purchases of Girl Scout cookies Friday and Saturday and all next week. Girls will have their cookies with them when they approach prospective customers and will deliver and collect when the sale is made.

255 Acres of Farmland Sold; Plan Several Subdivisions

Pictures in Realty Ads Sell Property

Willson and Florence, Arlington Heights real estate firm, finds that through constant display advertising of homes in Paddock Publications that the old adage "One Picture is worth a thousand words" is true. They have had such success with the "Perfect Home of the Week" advertisement appearing on the Design for Living page each week that they have expanded their program of display advertising to show photos of several homes each week.

This together with their exclusive "Picturama" of better home buys, a large photo display of homes for sale in the northwest suburban area, makes it possible for an interested home buyer to know the type of home he is going to see before starting out to look, thereby saving hours of time and disappointment.

NOT ONLY does this firm sell homes and business properties in the area but if asked where the new additions to the villages were going to be they would be able to tell as their recent sales include several farms sold to subdividers.

The Leseberg farm of 80 acres on route 53, adjacent to Palatine, has been sold to Roscoe Homes of 38 S. Dearborn, Chicago. The Herman Schroeder farm of 40 acres also on route 53 has been sold to an undisclosed buyer. The 30 acres belonging to Wallace Young also on rte. 83 have been sold to an undisclosed buyer.

The Clausing farm consisting of 75 acres at the intersection of Kirchhoff rd. and Plum Grove rd. has been sold to Milton Hansen of Park Ridge. Hansen will develop this property with homes ranging in price to $30,000.

The Henry W. Moehling property of 30 acres between Kirchhoff and Central rd. has been sold to Arrow Engineering and Construction company—this will be developed with homes seling from $25,000 to $30,000.

THEY ALSO report the sale of 87 feet of business property known as the Arthur Kelling property in the 100 block of N. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, to an undisclosed buyer.

They expect to make an announcement in a short time of the sale of a business which is reputed to be one of the largest sales consummated in this area.

They report that their business for the first quarter of 1955 shows over 100 per cent increase over the same period last year and that activity in real estate prospective buyers for homes in the area is greater now than at any time during their many years in business.

Admiral Old Explains Toll Roads to Northwest Realtors

Members of Northwest Board of Realtors were given a prevue of the plans of the Toll Road Authority Thursday evening by Admiral Old, executive director of the authority.

He told the realtors that highway building under past methods has failed miserably. There has not been enough money provided by existing taxing bodies to keep pace with the increase in automotive traffic.

In his opinion adequate road building would require the expenditure of six billions a year for the next 15 years. At present only one billion a year is being expended for roads.

"The answer is toll roads," said Old. He pointed to the experience of the Pennsylvania turnpike, which is paying its construction bonds well in advance.

The toll road authority will not participate in tax funds. It will pay its own way. It will even purchase from the county and state 7.2 miles of the Northwest Expressway, which will become part of the toll road system and provide a direct connection from Chicago limits to O'Hare Field and the Tri-State toll road.

REALTORS asked many pertinent questions of Old. A few of them he could not answer, but the information given by the admiral could be summed up as follows:

After the courts get through kicking around the toll road project 193 miles will be completed within about 2 years. Those 193 miles include the Tri-state around Chicago and from the north end of Edens highway to the state line; construction of the northwest expressway to Cicero ave.

Passenger cars will be charged about 1½ cents a mile, trucks 6 cents. Collection of the fees will be partly automatic. Lowest fee will be 10 cents for short use of the toll road.

Business spots on the toll road will be limited to service and gas stations and restaurants, all licensed by the authority.

Ramps and intercharges can only be located where traffic will support them.

Local realty appraisers will be used; there will be no "browbeating" of owners whose land is needed; current realty prices will be paid.

A representative of Dunn Realty of Park Ridge made it known that she did not like the speed permitted on Edens. She was advised by Old to use other roads.

She was also told that no awards would be made for alleged damages to adjoining property because experience has shown that land values along Edens expressway have gone up and not down. Old said that the jet planes flying overhead were more damaging to adjoining property than the toll road.

THE ADMIRAL said "$633,000 is being included in the budget for landscaping along the toll road would possess scenic advantages which do not now exist."

He warned owners to refuse to enter into contracts with any person who claims that he can provide a service if they sign on the dotted line. Old said "There have bee no right-of-way offers made; no appraisal values set, nor any committments."

He said he would recommend to the commissioners that they sell back to owners at 10 per cent of value buildings including in land purchases.

A bit of good news for the realtors assembled was the fact that their services would be solicited in the appraising of property.

According to plans inspected by a reporter Monday, there will be 3 ramps north of O'Hare field, Dempster, Golf rd. and Dundee rd.

There will be overpasses for intervening roads. In order to avoid a cemetery the toll road will make a left curve into the forest preserve between Dempster and Central rd. In Northfield township it will pass to the east of West Northfield school and cross Milwaukee ave., a short distance north of Lake st.

The north terminus of the road will be Route 41 at the state line. A spur will connect with Edens. Paddock Publications will have in its office next week complete maps of both the Tri-state and Northwest Expressways.

Zone Authority Cracks Down On Unincorporated Building

A team of 50 special investigators combed 900 square miles of unincorporated Cook county this weekend and discovered that 75 percent of the builders are violating a building and zoning bureau regulation.

The regulation calls for builders to display prominently on each house under construction a sign attesting to the fact that a permit has been issued for the building.

"If there has been any honeymoon, the honeymoon is over — and you can so warn the builders," warned William Mortimer, head of the county bureau, who declared "war" this week on builders who have been lax in complying with county rules.

Of 1,768 buildings — mostly homes — observed to be under construction by a special task force of 50 highway engineers, only 415 displayed the required cards.

"Absolute obedience is probably the understatement of the week," said Mortimer. If further investigation shows bribes have been taken to circumvent county laws, he will give that information to the state's attorney.

Mortimer said many buildings which did not display permit cards have undoubtedly had permits taken out. But he warned that he will call in his inspectors to find out why builders were not forced to comply with the department regulation.

Most flagrant case of zoning violation was in Northfield township, where 75 homes in the Northfield Woods subdivision were built without any permits at all. That violation was discovered several weeks ago by county commissioner Charles F. Chaplin.

Best record of any township was Niles — there, one house was under construction and one permit card was displayed.

In Norwood township, however, 114 buildings were under construction and not one card was up. In Palatine, 17 cards were up for 128 houses.

A breakdown of the results of the investigation by townships in this area:

Township	Und. cons.	Per dis.
Barrington	29	14
Palatine	128	17
Wheeling	146	96
Northfield	172	53
Hanover	22	8
Schaumburg	24	4
Elk Grove	40	6
Maine	130	17

Many Changes In New Zoning Ordinance

Arlington Heights plan commission and zoning board have held several individual and joint meetings in preparation of a new zoning ordinance for that village.

Text of the proposed ordinance has been released to the press, and maps are expected to be ready by the end of this week.

The ordinance is a model zoning plan for all future development within the present village and sets up rules and regulations which will apply to present residential and commercial property.

The zoning board has announced that hearings will be started within 2 weeks. It is not their intention "to cram the ordinance down the throats of property owners." They will have ample opportunity to speak up.

Outstanding provisions of the ordinance is the lot size of residential property, and the parking areas that must be provided for all new structures, both residential and commercial.

Principal features of the ordinance are:

Six zoning districts for single family, two-family, multiple family dwellings, commercial, service and light industry, and industrial.

Area regulations will require a front yard on each street line for corner lots unless this reduces buildable widths to less than 35 feet.

Rear yards must have a depth of at least 30 feet or 20 per cent of lot depth, whichever is smaller.

Minimum lot sizes are 8,712 square feet and 66 foot widths.

Two-family dwellings must provide parking space on each lot for at least 2 cars.

Commercial buildings must provide permanent parking spaces on their lots at a ratio of 1 space for each 300 square feet of floor space. Commercial structures with apartments shall provide an additional 1 parking space for each apartment.

Maximum height for buildings is 3 stories or 40 feet.

Industrial districts must also provide parking spaces for employees.

Charles J. Walters Is Candidate For State Senator

April 1956 is a year away, but Charles J. Walters, Palatine attorney and former special agent of the FBI is the first to announce his candidacy for the Republican nomination for State Senator from the proposed Senatorial District No. 3, comprising Barrington, Palatine, Hanover and Schaumburg townships.

Walters is well known throughout the area and is well qualified to represent the new district. His friends think it would be a pretty good idea to have a handy Palatine man in the State Senate. "We would not have to depend upon the mails to let him know how we want him to vote," said one of them.

Northwest Cook county has never before had one of their own in the State Senate.

Place Restriction Rezoning Of 91 Acres in Maine Township

Action by the county board Tuesday ended what zoning board chairman Andrew J. Dallstream has described as the most thorough consideration given a county zoning problem in recent years.

The county board approved zoning changes necessary to make possible a 91-acre development planned by Arthur T. McIntosh & Company. The development will be located on Milwaukee ave., south of Central rd., in Maine township.

Zoning board approval was held up pending the decision of the developer as to what to do with an 11-acre piece of "no man's land," property the zoning classification of which was ruled invalid in a circuit court decree of July 3, 1951.

THE EFFECT of the decree was to create a piece of land which, according to Dallstream, might have been claimed to be free from all zoning restrictions.

McIntosh agreed to use the land only for residential purposes and applied for a zoning ordinance authorizing the building of homes on it.

This was approved by the zoning board. At the request of the zoning board, McIntosh also agreed to withdraw a request for a light industry district and to amend a request for a business-tavern-and amusement district to include only a portion of the property for which the classification was originally requested.

With these amendments, the county board approved McIntosh's rezoning requests.

THE BOARD'S action classifies as residential all of the 91 acres, with these exceptions: a 5-acre tract on the northwest corner is zoned for business; a 5-acre tract on the south is zoned for business; a 5-acre tract in the northeast corner at the intersection of Central road and Milwaukee ave., is zoned for business — with the exception of the portion at the intersection which is zoned in a business, tavern and amusement district.

The business, tavern and amusement classsification will permit the sale of liquor in a restaurant to be built there; but McIntosh has agreed to execute covenants against trailer camps, taverns and amusement uses.

County board approval of the zoning was made conditional on the execution of such covenants.

4 Arlington Churches Unite In Community-Wide Summer Program

A cooperative vacation church school in Arlington Heights June 13-24 is an assured reality according to plans announced this week. Working together as Christian brethren will be the First Methodist, First Presbyterian, Our Saviour Lutheran, and St. John Evangelical and Reformed churches. The cooperating churches feel that this will be a fine expression of ecumenicity at the grass roots. All 4 churches work through the National Council of Churches and follow its policies concerning joint efforts.

Because of the significant number of residents connected with the 4 churches it is also hoped that other organizations in the community will keep these dates in mind in arranging recreational or other activities for the children of these churches and their friends.

Mrs. Jack H. Schuler has accepted the position of director of the program. Responsible for the program will be a cooperative vacation church school council composed of the pastors and representatives from the participating churches. Pastor J. G. Meiners is serving as chairman of this group.

A delegation will be attending an institute sponsored by the Church Federation of greater Chicago at Chicago Temple April 25 at 7 p.m. A meeting of all interested will be held at First Methodist church April 27 at 7:30 p.m.

JUST DOGS

by DAVE TERRILL

Spring has Sprung

As a matter of fact it has not only sprung—this year it seems to have jumped. Everywhere signs of early planting are under way and many a weekend gardener is finding out just what muscles were not exercised during the winter.

All of this brings up the point that more so than humans, dogs are outdoor creatures, and the coming of spring sort of brings them a certain amount of joyful satisfaction which their owners can scarcely imagine.

If, therefore, you consider yourself a friend of your dog make it a point at this season to give him extra time outdoors where he can enjoy the sunshine to his heart's content. It makes me often think about what Will Judy, a leading dog editor and magazine publisher once wrote. He said, "Every dog from the snub-nosed Pekingese to the sensitive-nosed Setter is entitled to his days outdoors in order to renovate and maintain his natural instinct to hunt, scent, and explore."

Kewanee

Speaking of outdoor exercise brings to mind that you folks who feel in the need for some will have a good chance for it. The National Coon Hound Trials are to be run this year at Kewanee on May 28 and 29 and for you folks who like to watch field and hound dogs at work there is a good chance to watch some Coon dogs do their stuff.

The event is rather unusual in that the trials are held each year in a different state and it will be many years before they are held again in Illinois. There will be some 1500 dogs entered in the affair and they are being brought in from all over the country.

Show Dog

Many folks who attended the recent International K.C. show and who had their first look at a dog show seemed to have the impression that the life of a show dog is anything but happy. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Some have the idea that show dogs never do anything else. As a matter of fact, no dogs are shown every day and the vast majority are taken only to a few selected shows every year. Moreover, a very high percentage of the dogs seen at shows live closely with their owners as house dogs. They play and have a good time, and as a rule, get far better care than most other dogs.

For one thing, a show dog must be in top physical condition which means that infinite attention is paid to his general health, including proper feeding and exercise. A show dog probably receives more regular exercises than most average pets because a dog must have exercise to keep him fit.

The well-groomed coat of a show dog is not only better looking than a matted, snarled mass of hair but far more comfortable for the dog. With this and many other points in his favor the show dog is probably a better dog from the all-around standpoint than many others.

Also to say that many of them have no backbone makes me laugh. I can think of a couple of champions right now owned by two different families who permit their dogs to live a very normal outdoor life. This involves keeping an eye on the house and the owner's family. The result — just try to walk off with something or start trouble with anyone in the family. Brother —you will have had it.

L-Nor Cleaners In 'Business As Usual' In Spite Of Fire

In spite of the fire catastrophe last Friday in their Prospect Heights cleaning plant, L-Nor cleaners have announced business is proceeding as usual, with route pick-up and delivery service on cleaning and laundry.

Splendid cooperation of friendly cleaning plants in the vicinity has made this service possible. Lou Sadecky and Virgil Rolfs have also stated that their own cleaning facilities will be back in full operation in a very short time.

In the meantime L-Nor cleaners office is temporarily set up two doors north at 13 N. Elmhurst rd. in Prospect Heights for cash and carry business. Mr. Rolfs and Mr. Sadecky have also expressed sincere thanks to their customers and friends who have offered and given their assistance since the fire, and, to quote Lou Sadecky, "the most gratifying thing in the world is to find in an hour of tragedy, that our customers have expressed their confidence in us, through this splendid cooperation we are able to continue our business and make plans for the future of L-Nor cleaners. We will never forget this loyalty."

Lou also joins Virgil Rolfs and the rest of the L-Nor gang in thankin gthe many fire departments for their wonderful work. (B5

Personal Property Payments Improve

Payments of personal property taxes have shown a marked increase this year much to the satisfaction of local assessors, who have been doing their best to get people personal property tax conscious.

Despite what many people think, all taxing units participate in the personal property tax in the same ratio as they do in the real estate tax. All these years, when a lot op people and especially self-considered big shots have been refusing to pay the personal property tax, all they have been doing besides satisfying their own egos was to rob the schools and other taxing units of much needed revenue.

A lot of people have the impression that the personal property tax is some sort of a politicians' slush fund, but it isn't. All taxing bodies get this out of whatever is paid and whenever its paid, even to that the judges drag out of reluctant taxpayers.

7th District Juniors Hold Final Meeting

Final meeting of all the seventh district junior clubs was held at Mt. Prospect village hall April 12.

First speaker of the evening was Lucia Perrigo, public relations director for the Ambassador hotels in Chicago. "Inside the Pump Room" was the title of her talk. One of the highlights of her talk was the amusing incidents with the "pup room," the room where the dog owners who dine in the Pump room park their dogs. Also she told of the history of the room and how it was originated.

Next speaker was Waldo B. Kenworth. Mr. Kenworth spoke about how the Stamps for the Wounded have helped rehabilitate the wounded veterans in the hospitals. Many stamps were turned in at this meeting and given to Mr. Kenworth.

Jack Norris, principal of Wheeling school in which the Braille classroom is housed, told the junior clubwomen how the money that was made from the benefit was used. The majority of the money so far has been spent on equipping the class room. Mr. Norris described the classroom.

Mrs. William Corts, mother of a little blind girl told of daily life with her daughter. She is raising her as a normal child. She said not being able to see isn't the terrible, horrible thing people seem to believe it to be. Mrs. Corts also has another daughter and both get their spanking when needed.

Mrs. Zata Cahill was elected as director of the organization. Corresponding secretary and treasurer were also elected. These positions will be filled by Grace Extrand and Muriel Schrock.

Favorites for Flavor

A tasty "quickie" dinner, which can be prepared in minutes with ingredients most housewives usually keep on hand, has been suggested by Mrs. George H. Kohler.

Mrs. Kohler has had the recipe for Egg and Cheese Puffs for years and has found it convenient to use on many different occasions.

Not only does it come in handy when a quick meal must be prepared, but it is excellent to serve as a luncheon dish, accompanied by a salad, or for a meatless dinner.

Similar to an egg pancake, these Puffs also contain chopped onion and sharp cheese for zest and flavor. Green pepper can be added, if desired. Egg and Cheese Puffs are nutritious as well as delicious.

The Kohlers live at 843 S. Vail, Arlington Heights. Mrs. Kohler is a member of Circle 1 of the Presbyterian church.

Egg and Cheese Puffs

4 eggs
1 3 cup flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 tablespoon chopped or grated onion
½ teaspoon salt
1 3 pound sharp cheese, cubed

Beat eggs and combine with flour, baking powder, onion and salt. Add cheese (in one-quarter inch cubes) and mix.

Put a tablespoon of mixture in skillet and brown lightly on both sides. (Use low flame.) Make 12 puffs. Serves four.

ROCHESTER PHILHARMONIC CONCERT

The final concert of the season of Community concerts was presented by the Rochester Philharmonic orchestra, under the direction of Erich Leinsdorf, to a large and appreciative audience in the large gymnasium of the high school. Completely filling the boys' gym stage with 90 players, the orchestra also completely filled the spacious hall with rich, full bodied orchestra tone that gave solidarity and substance to their offering, a program of symphonic stature representing composers from early Haydn to the late Moussorgsky. Visitors were on hand from adjoining areas, as members of Community Concerts in other communities are privileged to attend neighboring concerts if there is seating available.

The orchestra itself is composed of players of the first rank, people who occupy first chair positions being also on the faculty of the Eastman School, and the remaining positions filled by the most outstanding talent available in a famous music school community. Haydn's "Surprise" symphony demands impeccable technique, crisp clean playing, finely drawn phrasing and the utmost in melodic balance. All 4 were fulfilled to the fullest, and Mr. Leinsdorf judiciously used a smaller orchestra, more in keeping with the scoring of Haydn's day. There was no compromise in tonality—the pitch was perfect—in fact, two of the orchestra personnel said during the intermission that the stage was the most resonant they had encountered on their tour—they could hear both themselves and the other instruments of the orchestra better than in most environments. (The Notre Dame Band members made the same comment.)

The full complement of players returned to the stage to present Kodaly's "Variations on a Hungarian Folk Song," made up of an introduction, theme, 16 variations and a finale. Here was evident ample orchestra colour, rich, sonorous quality, versatility of instrumentation and even a bit of imaginative freedom (a conductor's prerequisite.) Actually, it was exciting composition, and exhilerating listening, for you don't know what is coming next.

The second half of the program was made up of Wagner, with a part of the Good Friday music, and the concert finished with Moussorgsky's "Pictures At An Exhibition." We last heard this work from the hands of the late William Kapell on the stage of the smaller auditorium—in fact, he broke a hammer on his own Steinway just before he got the "great gate" fully opened. For orchestra, there is an added wealth of color, a little fire, those ringing chimes and the beauty of the harp, with plenty of woodwind choir and brass ensemble to suit the taste.

Altogether, the Rochester is one of the top orchestras of our country—we in this area are used to the excellence of our own Chicago Symphony, plus great visitors such as the Berlin Philharmonic, Amsterdam Concertgebeouw, Danish Symphony, to mention a few, so to bring in an orchestra is treading where the angels fear to trod.

Mr. Leinsdorf, their eminent conductor, is the epitome of modesty, a quality which most of our present day fraternity needs to learn. The hard work of drilling, phrasing, attack, release, balance and intonation was all done at home, so that the conductor could proceed with the very minimum of gesture and effort, yet get the maximum of performance and response. While yet young, Mr. Leinsdorf has a mature view, a broad sweep of a musical line, a measured discipline, and commands the respect and minute attention of his players.

If the audience had been a bit more insistent and generous with their applause, there was an encore on the desks which would have been a joy to hear.

All due credit to a memorable concert, one which only one in 20 community organizations can afford to venture. It might be too much to wish for a repeat next year, but let us hope that a return engagement will not be too long forthcoming.

The drive for new members is on—"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party."

Volunteer Workers Plan Camp Reinberg Open House

A group of volunteer workers met at Camp Reinberg in Deer Grove forest preserve recently to hear about the activities of the camp for the past year and to plan the camp's open house to be held April 30-May 1. Mesdames John McKee, Tony Ciccone, Robert Hamor, Noble Puffer of Palatine, Edward Coburn and Fred Waswo of Arlington Heights were the representatives of the immediate area.

The group spent the morning planning the open house, addressing invitations, and ended their work with a picnic lunch served in the dining room of the new winterized quarters of the camp.

After lunch David Ramage, a staff member, explained the use of these new quarters. Originally the camp was set up for warm weather use only, but this year for the first time teenagers used the camp for winter weekend camping. Mr. Ramage said that this program had been started in response to the great demand for activities for teenagers, and that it has met with very great success.

Extensive remodeling of the great hall was done to provide winterized quarters. It now boasts 2 dormitories, a recreation room, and a dining room with a view of the wooded camp site.

These facilities will be on view at the open house as well as the rest of the 75-acre camp. The varied activities of the camp promise to make the open house instructive as well as interesting, and of course the camp animals will provide a thrill for the children.

Camp Reinberg will be open to visitors any time during the weekend, and all who are interested are cordially invited to look over the camp's facilities and learn more about its program.

The camp is located on forest preserve property north of Dundee road. Camp Reinberg association which operates the camp, is a private agency, a member of the Chicago Welfare council, the Chicago Community Fund and is endorsed by the Chicago Association of Commerce and Industry Subscriptions Investigating committee. About one-third of the camp's operating cost is met by the agency groups, one-third by the Community Fund of Chicago, and one-third by voluntary contributions.

The emphasis of the camp is directed toward the underprivileged children of Chicago; however, the camp also provides services for children from better homes including school children from Palatine, Barrington, Arlington Heights and Glencoe.

President of the association is Lemuel B. Hunter of Winnetka. Robert Hamor of Palatine is a member of the board of directors.

Plan County-Wide TB X-ray Program This Summer

Plans to X-ray more than 900,000 residents of Chicago and Cook county under a program scheduled to begin May 23, were announced this week by John E. Egdorf, executive director of the Tuberculosis Institute, the Christmas Seal organization.

EGDORF revealed the huge program after a series of conferences with officials of the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium, the suburban Cook county tuberculosis sanitarium district and the various health departments, which jointly conduct the annual free chest X-ray program in cooperation with the institute.

Purpose of the campaign is to find and assure treatment for the more that 5,000 Chicago and Cook county residents estimated to have tuberculosis without being aware of it.

In an outline of plans for the campaign, the executive director said the entire city and county for the first time would be covered throughout the 20-week community phase of the program. Six mobile X-ray units will be used. In September a seventh mobile unit will be made available for the final two months of the drive.

Egdorf said special attention will be given 20 acres shown by statistics to have 65 per cent of the new tuberculosis cases reported.

IN 1953, 4,053 new cases of tuberculosis were reported in Chicago and Cook county. In 1954, 4,573 new cases were reported for the two areas, a considerable increase over 1953. The problem is complicated by the fact that in its early stages, tuberculosis has no visible symptoms.

News Of Rolling Meadows

HELENE BRISTOL, Editor — 2104 South Street — CLearbrook 3-8125

United We Stand

At last the campaigns are over. Now that Rolling Meadows has elected its first city officials the gigantic task of organizing our city government has begun. Regardless of pre-election sentiments the men elected for the various offices deserve the complete support and assistance of everyone. The important work of forming the city government so that it will best serve the interests of the community will take a great deal of time and effort, and whatever help residents are asked to render should be given freely. Your city government can only be as good as the residents are willing to make it. Partisanship belongs to elections—not to everyday city government and living.

Cancer Drive

The Lutheran Ladies group of the Lutheran church in Rolling Meadows has undertaken the cancer drive in our community. The women of the organization will start their house-to-house canvass this Thursday. You are urged to welcome the women when they call at your home, and to be as generous as your budget will allow in your donations to this vital cause. The recent wonderful news regarding a polio vaccine marvelously demonstrates the possibilities of research in diseases made possible by public donations. Your dollars may well contribute to the early discovery of a cure for cancer.

The women will not only be seeking contributions, however. Every home in Rolling Meadows will receive an important pamphlet on cancer. Residents are requested to carefully study the contents of this leaflet as it contains vital information on the danger signals of cancer. This knowledge may well serve to assist in the early discovery of the disease for you or your loved ones.

If you would like to assist with this drive in Rolling Meadows you are invited to call Mrs. Aubrey Amundson at CLearbrook 5-0694, who has charge of the drive here.

New Arrival

Earl and Lola Kolb of 2903 Lark ct. have a new addition to their family. Little Gail Denise tipped the scales at only 4 pounds on her arrival April 11. The little girl is staying at Mount Sinai hospital for a short while. Her brother and sister are anxiously waiting for her arrival home, as is her grandmother, who is here from California.

PTA Board Meeting

The newly organized Kimball Hill PTA unit board held a meeting April 13, at the Kimball Hill school. Several important items of business were discussed. Mrs. Lois Hvid of Oriole lane was appointed program chairman for the unit, filling out the complete roster of committee chairmen.

Thanks From PTA

On behalf of the Palatine District 15 PTA Mrs. Gretchen White of Sigwalt st., one of the district directors, extends sincere appreciation to all Rolling Meadows mothers who so generously contributed cakes for the Fun Fair held last Saturday at the Oak Street school, Palatine. Contributions made by the mothers greatly assisted in the success of the PTA afafir.

Welcome To Rolling Meadows

While new move-ins are rather common in Rolling Meadows, once a section has become established new arrivals are fairly unusual. Wilke rd. residents who were among the very first to move to Rolling Meadows have welcomed a new family to their midst. Jackie and Dan Hale are making their new home at 2809 Wilke rd., with their German shepherd dog. Mr. Hale works for the Pan-American Airways, and has charge of the cargo department. His real claim to fame, however, is through his being a direct descendent of the famous patriot Nathan Hale. The Hales have a very cosmopolitan background, having spent 3 years in Germany. Mrs. Hale was formerly a chief nurse with the United States navy. Welcome to Rolling Maedows—we know you will like it here.

Fashion Fair Great Success

The community barn was practically bursting at the seams last Thursday evening when the Women's association of the Community church presented their Fashion Fair. More than 225 people attended the gala affair. Beautiful styles of women's and children's apparel were modeled by members of the Women's association and their children. The entire show was thoroughly enjoyed by those in attendance, even the husbands who, it was suspected, were brought along for the use of their billfolds. Refreshments were served following the fashion show, and the excellent cakes were enjoyed almost as much as the show itself. The Women's association has not as yet received a report on the profits made on the clothing orders, but the money collected from the admissions alone would make the affair very successful. The women of the church sincerely appreciate the support which their neighbors gave to this program, and they thank everyone for their attendance.

Easter Visit

Mr and Mrs. Wilfred Langhoff and their daughter, Linda, 2300 Sigwalt st., spent the Easter holiday in Waukesha, Wis. The Langhoff family were visiting Linda's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Harlen Messling and their family. Little 3 year old Linda enjoyed the Easter egg hunt and was delighted with her Easter basket.

Dangerous Practice

Several residents have reported falling or stumbling over children's toys left on the sidewalks. Since there are no street lights in Rolling Meadows walking along the sidewalks at night has become a hazardous occupation when one must thread his way through a maze of wagons, bicycles, and other toys. Oftentimes the toys do not even belong to the family living in the home in front of which they are left. Please, for your own safety and protection as well as that of your neighbors, take your children's toys home with them when they are finished with their play. The inconvenience of dragging toys home is easily worth protecting the toys and preventing an avoidable accident.

Lost and Found

Norman Dierkes, 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dierkes of 2301 Wilke rd., has reported finding a cap pistol. Norman discovered the gun while playing baseball in the parking lot on Campbell st., near Wilke. Saturday afternoon. If your child has lost his cap pistol and there is the possibility that this gun may be it, please call Mrs. Ruth Dierkes at CLearbrook 3-5225. Upon proper identification she will gladly return the toy gun to the owner.

Sunday Softball Game

The final score of 31 to 18 does not properly demonstrate the exciting softball game played last Sunday at the Arlington Heights high school between residents of Sigwalt and Wing sts. The Sigwalt st. team, unofficial champions of last year's softball season in Rolling Meadows, were the victors but not before the Wing st. team had given them a good run for their money. The Wing st. team was captained by Joe Stapleton, and the Sigwalt st. team was captained by Ed Jaske, who also led the team last year. The teams are hopeful that other streets will organize softball teams to meet them in competition. If you would like advice or further information regarding this activity you are invited to call Ed Jaske at CLearbrook 3-8531.

Little League News

Future Rolling Meadows Little Leaguers are reminded that the listing of their names with the Little League organization last fall did not constitute an official registration for this activity. All boys of Rolling Meadows between the ages of 8 and 12 are welcome to join the Rolling Meadows Little League. To participate, official registration cards must be filled out and signed by both parents, and proof of age must be shown at the time of registration. Registration cards may be picked up at the home of Ed Garrity at 2504 South st., filled out at the convenience of parents and returned when signed. If you have a boy between 8 and 12 who has not already registered for this outstanding activity be sure to lose no time in enrolling him. Further information may be had by calling Mr. Garrity at CLearbrook 3-8346. Mr. Garrity has planned to be at his home all day Saturday and Sunday to be available for registrations, and he would be very glad to hear from you.

Birthday Parties

The circus came to town last Saturday, April 16, and it stopped at the home of Gary Rowbottom who was celebrating his fourth birthday. Gary is the young son of "Row" and Lois Rowbottom of 2311 School dr. The circus theme for his birthday party was successful, and an especially good time was had by Gary and his guests. Helping Gary to celebrate his birthday were Craig and Jefferey Howard, Bruce Lee, Mary Beth Bridenhagen, Donna Tessendorf, and his little brother, Richard.

The Rolling Meadows "paper boy" just celebrated his tenth birthday last Sunday. Roy Tatar is the delivery boy for several sections of Rolling Meadows for the Arlington Heights Herald. A special birthday cake for the important event was the center of attraction Sunday. Roy is the son of Doris and Tom Tatar of 2206 Campbell st. Roy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stein of Oakton rd., Arlington Heights, were on hand for the celebration, as well as several other guests. Thoroughly enjoying their brother's birthday were the other "paper boys" Ronnie and Terry, who also deliver the Herald in Rolling Meadows.

It was a double birthday party at the home of Bill and Lily June Behlke, 2410 Sigwalt st., last Saturday evening, April 16. The Behlkes and their friends celebrated the third birthday of their son, John, and the first birthday of their little daughter, Linda. Joining the Behlke family for the important occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Loveless of Rolling Meadows, Mr. and Mrs. Clem Wessel of McHenry, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Godwin and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrieber of Chicago.

Johnny Behlke also held a birthday party Saturday afternoon for his friends. Helping Johnny observe his birthday were Kathy and Kevin Farrell, Mary Lou and Eddie Martin, Randy Farquhar, Allen Brandt, Danita Loveless and Johnny's brother, Bob. The children enjoyed birthday cake and ice cream, and many enjoyable games were played.

Another double birthday celebration was held last Saturday at the home of Pat and Shirley Adducci of 2803 Wilke rd. A birthday party for their two young sons was held in the afternoon. Pat Adducci was 6 years old and Mike Adducci was 5 years old. Joining Pat and Mike for their big double party were Terry Martin, Gary Gathmann, Cindy Schurak, Bobby and Carol Reynolds, Willie Jacobson, Bobby Pina, Bobby Keller and Joan and John Macior. Also on hand to help with the celebration was their brother, Billy, who is 9 years old. A wonderful party was had—after all, double birthdays are twice as good!

Girl Scout Cookie Sale

Tomorrow, April 22, will see the start of the girl scout and brownie cookie sale here in Rolling Meadows. The cookies will come in 4 delicious flavors and sell for only 40 cents a box. They are well worth it, both from the standpoint of your family's appetite and the support of such worth-while organizations. The younger brownies will sell the cookies in their own vicinity, but the girl scouts will go from door-to-door until their supplies are exhausted. The girls from troop 353, under the supervision of Mrs. Ruthmary Zupan, will sell cookies at the model homes Saturday and Sunday afternoon, and if you have not already been contacted to buy a box you might buy your cookies there.

Baby Sitters Wanted

The baby sitting service organized by Mrs. Marge Hansen has found a great deal of acceptance in the community. Lately, however, it has been found that additional "sitters" are needed, particularly in the newer sections of the city. If you are interested in baby sitting in your spare time, or if you would like to arrange for a baby sitter to care for your child, you are urged to call Mrs. Hansen at CLearbrook 5-0854 or contact her at her home at 2317 Bluebird lane.

Lutheran Church News

A business meeting of the Lutheran church in Rolling Meadows was held last Sunday evening, April 17. Several important items of business were discussed including a future meeting place, the procuring of a vicar to take charge of the church in Rolling Meadows, and the selection of a name for the new church. Several suggestions for the church name were discussed, and a preference seemed to be for Trinity Lutheran church although no definite action on this name was taken.

The Lutheran Ladies group has planned a meeting for Tuesday night, April 26, at 8 p.m. The hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. Ruth Gruenbaum of 2315 Meadow dr. A period of social enjoyment is always held at the meetings as well as official business of the group, and any Rolling Meadows woman interested in the Lutheran church is invited to attend the meeting.

Stork Feathers

It's a boy! That's the proud announcement being made by Owen and Barbara Walther of 2104 Eastman st. Steven arrived last Saturday, and the scales at the Oak Park hospital were tipped at 6 pounds 11 ounces.

Community Concert Drive

The Arlington Heights Community Concert association has extended an invitation to residents of Rolling Meadows to join them in their planned winter concert series next year. The association is in the midst of its membership drive at the present time. The drive will end this Saturday, April 23, and no further tickets will be sold, even at the time of the concerts. The association has presented outstanding programs to the residents of Arlington Heights and surrounding communities. Past artists have included Gladys Swarthout, and the Rochester Symphony Orchestra. The association presents four or five concerts each winter at the modest cost of $6 for adults and $3.50 for students. This reasonable membership is barely more than the cost of one ticket to a concert in Chicago. Tickets may be had in Rolling Meadows from Mrs. Marshall Moses, 2207 Wing st., CLearbrook 3-8991. Further information regarding the concert series and membership may be had by calling Mrs. A. H. Franzen, general chairman of the group, at CLearbrook 3-0525. During the drive a special office has been set up at the Hill-Behan Lumber co. in Arlington Heights. The telephone number there is CLearbrook 5-1012.

Traveling

A pleasant visit in Denver, Colo., has been enjoyed by Lucy Holden and her young son, Peter. Mrs. Holden and Peter drove to Denver to visit her sister. The traveling pair returned to their home in Rolling Meadows at 2106 Eastman st. on the train. Keith Holden was glad to welcome his family back home last Tuesday.

Cub Pack News

The monthly meeting of the Rolling Meadows cub pack will be held next Wednesday, at the community barn. All parents are urged to attend the meeting to see the progress being made by their sons. The cub scout den which has the highest percentage of parent attendance also wins an award, so that you can be sure each cub scout will be urgently asking his parents to come to the meeting if at all possible. The meeting will start at 7 p.m. to permit the cubs and their younger brothers and sisters to be back in their own homes at a reasonable hour. Don't forget it means a great deal to your son to have you at the meeting, and it will be enjoyable for you, too, to see the wonderful work the cub pack organization is doing with the boys.

Anniversary Celebrations

A special "night out" was enjoyed by Ruth and Luther Gruenbaum of 2315 Meadow dr. in honor of their eighth anniversary. Following an enjoyable dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Gruenbaum attended the theatre. The Gruenbaums had such a wonderful time they are really looking forward to next April 12 for another anniversary celebration.

A really special anniversary celebration was held last week at the home of Ray and Shirley Sorenson at 2311 Meadow dr. Mrs. Sorenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Houch observed their 35th wedding anniversary with a family party at the Sorenson home. Attending the affair were Mr. Houch's sister, Mrs. Emily Skidmore, and Mrs. Sorenson's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. H. Deininger. The celebration was made even more outstanding because of the pleasure of the guests at being able to join in the important occasion since Mr. and Mrs. Houch now live in Seattle, Wash., and are rather infrequent visitors to the midwest.

Girl Scout News

Troop 302 under the leadership of Gretchen White and Shirley Sponsler has planned a really outstanding trip for this Sunday, April 23. At that time the girls of the troop will attend the Morris B. Sachs amateur hour program to lend their encouragement and support to one of their members who will appear on the show. Marigail Moreland of Eastman st. is scheduled to sing on the Sunday program, and, naturally, her fellow scouts are proud of her. Marigail recently appeared as the "Blue Fairy" in the Kimball Hill school presentation of Pinocchio.

An "investiture" ceremony followed by a small party for the new scouts will be held by troop 353 under the supervision of Ruthmary Zupan. Seven girls are ready to receive their Tenderfoot ratings and receive their official pins as girl scouts. The girls are Lynnea Heidt, Phylis Kikarski, Nancy Mikula, Karen Macior, Carole Ann Meyer, Dorothy Stier and Penny Tesser. In addition to the exciting investiture program the girls have also planned a horseback riding outing for Saturday, April 30.

A special "investiture" will be held this afternoon by brownie troop 357 under the leadership of Grace Nordlund and Irene Wiever. Fourteen girls of the troop will receive their official brownie pins during the special ceremonies. The brownies have invited their mothers to this special meeting, and refreshments will be served following the ceremonies. The meeting will be opened with the flag ceremony. Six of the brownies have prepared a skit entitled "The Brownie Story" for the enjoyment of their mothers. The refreshments which the girls will serve will also have been made, at least in part, by them, and they are anxious to demonstrate to their mothers their baking skill.

Men Wanted

The Rolling Meadows Neighborhood girl scout association has been asked to supply several men volunteers to assist in the annual spring rehabilitating work at Camp Pine, a girl scout and brownie camp located at Euclid and Rivers rds. The "work day" is planned for Saturday, April 30, and a hot meal will be served to all of the volunteers. Since Rolling Meadows girl scouts and brownies alike use the facilities of this camp it is sincerely hoped that some of the scout fathers will volunteer for this one-day work program. If you would like to assist the scout program in this way would you please call Mrs. Irene Sharples, neighborhood chairman, at CLearbrook 3-8368, or Wing Groves, district camp committee member, at CLearbrook 3-1251.

Mothers 'Coffee'

A "coffee" for mothers of first grade girls will be held by the Rolling Meadows girl scout neighborhood association at the community barn Tuesday, April 26, at 9:30 a.m. The first graders will be eligible to become brownies in the fall, and this meeting is planned to explain the scouting program to their mothers. The morning time has been set as it is felt many mothers will be more free at that time. Another meeting is planned for Thursday afternoon, April 28, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Irene Sharples, 2413 George st., primarily for those who find it impossible to attend the morning meeting. Baby sitting facilities will be provided during both meetings. Transportation to the meetings will be provided for those needing it by calling Mrs. Sharples at CLearbrook 5-8368. While only the first grade mothers are being invited by letter to the meetings, any woman in the community who is interested in girl scout work is welcome to attend.

Unhappy Birthday

A real "un-birthday" present was the lot of little Beth Hill. Beth is the young daughter of Ed and Elizabeth Hill of 2204 Campbell st. She was celebrating her second birthday last Friday, when she fell from the cedar chest in her home and broke her collar bone. In spite of the painful experience, the little girl still celebrated her birthday with a special cake. Joining in the celebration were her grandparents from Palatine and her sister, Marguerite, who is only 9 months old. It is hoped that Beth will soon be "good as new" and that next year she will have some happier presents to remember.

Home Parties

It was a lingerie party that brought the guests to the home of Vickie Engelking of 2312 Campbell st. last Friday evening. Attending the party were Roxy Harper, Matilda Engelking, Margaret Carr, Violet Eichholz, Marion Engelking, and Colette Harper of Des Plaines; Joyce Henning, Marva Baruth, Pauline Niesen and Shirley Roeing of Rolling Meadows; Alma Hamann and Virginia Taylor of Palatine; Eva Hanson, Adeline Dierking and Esther Cholvin of Chicago; and Alice Kirschke of Antioch. Following the demonstration the hostess served refreshments to her many guests.

Mrs. Howard of 2401 School dr. was the hostess at a copper demonstration last Monday evening. The outstanding display was presented by Mrs. Shill. Attending the party were Ruth Friehe of Stork ct. and Virginia Uppling, Barbara Bridenhagen, Shirley Witt, Melita Wieder and Lois Rowbottom of School dr. Following the discussion of the copperware Mrs. Howard served coffee and cake to her friends.

Little Barbara Ann Falk only made her appearance April 11 and she is already a hostess to special out-of-town company. Mrs. Louise Falk of East Orange, N. J., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Falk of 2310 Campbell st., helping to take care of her new granddaughter and her little grandson, Stevie, who is just 2 years old.

Here's the answer to at least a part of your weekend shopping problem, and a mighty delicious answer it is, too! The Sunday school staff of Community church is holding a bake sale at the community barn this Friday from 6:30 to 9 p.m. A good variety of baked goods will be offered by the women, and the profits from the sale will be used to purchase badly-needed Sunday school equipment. Parents of Sunday school children or others in the community who wish to donate bake goods for the sale are urged to contact Mrs. Forbes at CLearbrook 3-8096 or to bring their donations to the barn between 6 and 6:30 the night of the sale.

Mrs. William Noelle entertained Monday afternoon for her mother, Mrs. Benkwitz of Chicago. Guests were Mrs. William Albiniak and daughter, Carol, Mrs. John Kappa and Susan, Johnny, Linda, and Mike, and Mrs. Frank Kessler and Judy and Gary.

Easter Sunday was a busy day for the Suarez family of Lincoln lane. They held a belated family get-together, which had originally been scheduled for Christmas but cancelled due to illness. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Suarez of Chicago and son, Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Basten, Sr., of Chicago and sons, Dick and Erwin, Jr., and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ostrowski entertained their mothers, Mrs. L. Ostrowski of Chicago and Mrs. E. Baur of Arlington Heights Easter Sunday.

The Ted Depalmas spent a busy weekend planting their newly-purchased orchard. Their neighbors are looking forward to the day a few years hence when it becomes one of the beauty spots of Lincoln lane.

Mrs. Ed Ostrowski attended the regular monthly meeting of the Suburban Association for Physically handicapped held Wednesday in Elmhurst. Mrs. Ostrowski serves on the board of advisors for the association and she was pleased to discover that during her absence at the previous meeting an honorary membership had been voted for all members of the board of advisors.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Schroeder attended the yearly banquet of the Precision Wire co. at Franklin Park and its country-wide distributors held in the Des Plaines VFW hall. The shop bowling team, of which Mrs. Schroeder is a member, was awarded a prize for second place.

Wedgewood Terrace

Newcomer—the Robert Marchettis

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilders, who did not have a long time to get acquainted with their home at 3 W. Euclid before a business transfer moved them away, sold their house to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marchetti, who moved in April 2 from Chicago.

Mr. Marchetti is a draftsman for the White Cap company and became acquainted with Wedgewood Terrace when he and his family have visited with the Leo Beckers. Mr. Becker and Mr. Marchetti are both employed by the same company.

Lynn is the Marchetti's older child. 7 years, and going to be 8 in July, she is a second grader at the North school in Arlington Hts. Her brother is Albert, who is 2½ years.

Mr. Marchetti is an enthusiast of golf and bowling. Sewing is what Mrs. Marchetti particularly enjoys doing.

Mrs. Henry Combs and her family welcomed with much joy long-awaited guests who came over the ocean in the Queen Mary from Middlesex, England. They were Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds, Mrs. Combs' parents, here for about 3 months. They flew here from New York, landing at Midway airport. Unfortunately the trip was not too smoth on the boat and most of the passengers succumbed to seasickness sometime during the voyage. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds found rain in New York which did not seem like unusual weather. They found everyone very friendly in their traveling contacts.

On the same boat with them was Don Cochrell, a heavyweight fighter, who is scheduled to fight Graziano for the championship.

Of course, during their stay here Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and the Combs family are going to have lots to say to another and much to do together.

Mrs. Joe Warfsman flew home on April 12 after spending 5 days in Kansas City to see her 86-year-old grandfather, Max Lingefelter, who is recovering from a recent successful operation.

DISTRICT

Our delegates to the PTA convention, Mrs. C. W. Flink and Miss Idyl Nipper, are back home tired but with an interesting report to make at the April meeting. The convention lasted 3 days, from 9 a.m. to about 11 or 12 p.m. Mrs. Flink said "I wish every member of our organization could have been there, it was the most wonderful thing I have ever been to. The intense, intelligent interest shown in this work by the many thousands who attended was most inspiring."

This is the last notice of the PTA card and games party to be held at 8 o'clock, April 23, at the Feehanville schoolhouse. There will be table prizes, and refreshments will be available. Tickets can be obtained from the PTA members.

Scouts

Brownies and the intermediate troops will be selling Girl Scout cookies starting tomorrow, Friday. These are the delicious cookies sold by scouts all through this area and will cost 40 cents a box. The girls have been eagerly counting the days until Friday, as this is the first time they have been able to participate in a cookie sale, and they are counting on the warm cooperation for which this community is noted.

Brownies brought home cute little styrofoam bunnies and ducks for Easter, which they had made as their Easter project. They are already hard at work on their Mother's day project, but the project itself is being kept a secret as they want to surprise mother when the day comes.

Guild

Our Lady of Lourdes guild met at the home of Hermine Huening last Friday. At the close of the business meeting the ladies adjourned to the home of Mrs. Perry's daughter, Arline, in DesPlaines, where refreshments, furnished by Mrs. Huening, were served. Over the coffee cups final plans were made for the games party to be held April 25. Many lovely prizes are ready and waiting to be won. Tickets for this party may be obtained from any of the following guild members: Hermine Huening, Agnes Phares, Ruth Munson, Doris Milz, Helen Perry, Betty Arkell, Rosemary Schmeltzer and Rita Badalamenti, all of Forest River.

Forest River Church

Forest River Church celebrated its tenth anniversary last Sunday. The text for the sermon was from 2nd Timothy 4:7,8, and was the same text Rev. Pierson used when she preached her first sermon in the Forest River church 10 years ago. Special music was furnished by Helen Lowery of the golden voice, who sang several selections. Refreshments were served after the services.

The teen-agers who attended the combination Brigade and Pioneer Girl party last week Monday all arrived in hard-times costumes and all set for an evening of carefree fun and frolic, and they were not disappointed. Exciting games and stunts made the time fly. Refreshments were served. Included among those able to attend were Gail Wiltshire, Barbara Stamen, Bonnie Levine, Phil Roos, Robert Martens, John Hanson, Robert Levine, Janet Sandquist, Paul Cutler, Ken Halfers, Lynn Cutler, Roger Simon, Douglas Olson, Marlene Olson, Bonnie Mitchell, Bid Levine, Bud Meyer and Elaine Hanson. The chaperones were Ruth Pierson and Bill Martens. Committees who contributed to the success of the party were Robert Martens and Marlene Olson on refreshments, Robert Levine, Bonnie Mitchell and Elaine Hanson on publicity, John Hanson on games, and Phil Roos and Janet Sandquist who were on decorating committee.

Maine Hi-C club won its first quiz in the Hi-C Quiz League at North Park College last Thursday. Their opponents were the Lane-Sullivan Hi-C Club. The quiz team is composed of 5 members, Bud Meyer, John Hanson, Paul Cutler, Faith Huston, and Joyce Ahlgrim. The Maine Hi-C's had for a guest speaker at their last meeting Bill Pearce, a disc jockey on WMBI. He played several selections on his trombone for them.

Community News

A fashion parade and a short band concert constituted the high points of the program at the April meeting of the Prospect Heights PTA. The home economics teacher introduced the girls who have spent their last semester in the sewing class there as they displayed the clothes they had made. Models from this district who participated were Elaine Hanson, who had made a pair of pajamas, Carol Follet, who had made a brown plaid dress and cap, as well as a checked skirt and hat, Fay Johnson with a checked skirt and red blouse, Janet Sandquist, with a blue jumper, Betty Sue Henk with a printed cotton skirt and an apron. After the fashion parade the assembly enjoyed several selections played by the band. Boys from our district who were in the band were Billy Phar and Raymond Olson. A group of talented baton twirlers completed the program.

Hjalmar Sandquist of Anita st., with a friend, Nelville Quam, spent the last weekend fishing in Wolf river in Wisconsin. The trip was productive, as among the fish they brought home were a couple of wall-eyes and a northern.

Mr. Henning of Forest River suffered an eye injury while at work and has been undergoing treatment at the St. Frances hospital.

The April meeting of the Birthday Club was held at the home of Mae Schmitz. Plans for their annual outing were the exciting main topic of the evening. The prize for the month was won by Marion Miller. Exotic salads were served for refreshments, followed by whipped cream cake. Table favors were meringue nests, filled with Easter eggs. An Easter Egg tree was the centerpiece, loaded with cleverly decorated eggs.

Birthday greetings go to Paul Kleeman, who had his seventy-seventh birthday on the 17th. Other birthday celebrants this week are Nancy Lucille Kozel, who was 6 on the eleventh, and Leonard Munson, who was 8 on the sixteenth.

Wedding Bells

Miss Paula Wehlacz of Foundry road and David Reynolds of Virginia were united in marriage last Saturday at 11 o'clock at St. Marys church in DesPlaines. Fifty guests attended the small reception at her home Saturday and the main reception will be this coming Sunday in Chicago at 5 o'clock. On April 26 they will leave for Virginia for a 3-week honeymoon. They will be back the second week in May and will make their home in Rolling Meadows.

Raymond Olson of Anita st. and Marjilou Schmidt of Northbrook will be married on May 7 at St. Thecla on the north side of Chicago. Their reception will be held at the Belmont hotel in Chicago.

Prospect Meadows

Life in the Meadows was comparatively quiet after the big Easter weekend but a few brave souls did some entertaining. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cummins of Bob-O-Link rd., spent the pre-Easter week in Paducah, Ky. Their son, John, went with them and they picked up their son, James, at the University of Southern Illinois at Carbondale. They arrived home in time to have an open house to bid farewell to Fred and Beverly Thiele.

The Thieles had many well wishers come to say goodbye, including Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Talo, Perry and Marilyn Peregrine, Chris and Jack Pellitier, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goodwin, Millie and Gail Webber, Rosemary and Bill Viosburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schaack, Mrs. Ruth Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tucker and Mr. George Hampe. The Thieles were entertained at a dinner given by Millie and Gail Weber before they went to the party.

Ethel Larson spent a busy day last week with both afternoon and evening company. The Larson children, Linda, Terri and Raymond enjoyed visiting with Charlotte McIntyre and her daughter, Lynn, and Lucille Swanson and her daughter, Judy. The mothers played scrabble while the children frolicked with the April Fool puppy who is answering to Geo rge, Rex or Snooper. The Larsons enjoyed a surprise evening visit from Ray and Vernette Carnehl from Kansas City, Mo. Thursday Ethel enjoyed the company of her mother, Mrs. Henry Haas, and Mrs. George Kammerer and her daughter, Gail, from Des Plaines. Lorraine and Chuck Braziau entertained Chuck's brother and sister-in-law, Roy and Violet Brazeau and their children, Roy, Rochelle and Robert David for dinner Easter Sunday. Lorraine's sister, Marge Murray, a dental receptionist, is staying with the Brazeaus. Marge and Bill Murdock enjoyed having Marge's brother, Thomas Brunner from Ohio, for the weekend.

A bouquet of roses goes to the Grandmother's club of the Meadows for its early start in planning a project for its booth at the fair. Members have chosen Mrs. Myrtle Stickrod and Mrs. Helena Woodruff as co-chairmen for the booth. For those who may not know of this organization may I present Mrs. Janet Nye, Mrs. Myrtle Stickrod, Mrs. Edna Vartanian, Mrs. Francis Schulz, Mrs. Katherine Coughlin, Mrs. Elizabeth Gutzmer, Mrs. Marie Thrall and Mrs. Helena Woodruff.

Katherine Coughlin was given a surprise birthday party by the group last week and was very pleased to have been remembered by them. The group would like to make it known that they would enjoy having anyone of the Meadows women join if they are of the grandmother age. They will gladly call for anyone who cannot get about under her own power.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thude of Larkdale and their son, Donnie, have recently returned from 2 weeks in Florida. Pat and John Wrath and their children, Jane, Tim, Joyce and Peggy, spent their Sunday afternoon visiting Sister Trinette of St. Maurice church. Sister Trinette is Pat's sister.

Our New Residents

The Meadows welcoming committee enjoyed meeting 2 new families last Sat[illegible]

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible]ard Reilley of 408 Foundry r[illegible], were first on the list and the committee found them delightful people looking forward to living in the Meadows and joining in the fun. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bilerey, 601 Albion lane, were met next and they too were sure that they would enjoy living in Prospect Meadows.

The welcoming committee during the past year has welcomed 27 new families to the Meadows and has really done a wonderful job. These girls deserve all our thanks for adding one more of those touches of friendliness that we find here. A new committee is soon to be formed so many thanks to Ginnie Richardson, Kay Bischoff and Rosemary Finch for a grand job.

In the "good job well done" department belong the names of our 10 block captains who will soon be able to sit back and watch the newly-elected go to work. Our many, many thanks go to Lillian Kunz who served Rand rd. residents, Ethel Larson and Joyce LeBrun who handled Bob-O-Link, Elsie Leonhardt on Bunting, Delores Wadle on Albion, Fern Holleran and Ann Cody on Oriole, Lois Hearl and Lois Kandul on Larkdale and Lorraine Brazeau on Foundry rd., Ann Incinelli, Betty Nelson and Carol Jarm enjoyed their night out at the party given by the Arlington Heights Legion.

Lillian Kunz and her family welcomed Lillian's sister, Mrs. Charles Hartmann, and the Hart-Hartmann children, Eddie and Linda for Sunday dinner and a day of visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Seymour of Oriole lane enjoyed having Mrs. M. Seymour of Fox Lake with them for the weekend.

Shirley Seymour narrowly escaped pneumonia last week and thanks her neighbors who helped her out. The Seymours had entertained Doctor Fitch of Arlington Easter Sunday and were surprised when they had to call him back Monday for professional reasons.

Dean Valentine was "happy birthdayed" by Mark Pelletier, Michael Carey, Bruce Blim, David Nelson, Chucker Evans and his brother, Donn. The boys enjoyed cake and ice cream and prizes won playing musical chairs, bingo and a memory game that they did very well on: objects they couldn't spell they drew. Scott and Peter Ardinger celebrated a duo birthday Sunday with Billy Jacobson, Patty Riley, Tom Holleran and Pat Holleran. Peter's birthday is in March but the boys voted it was much more fun to celebrate together.

Chris and Jack Pelletier with their sons, Mark and Mike, spent an evening of fun at the senior Pelletiers in Chicago. The boys talked their parents into stopping at Kiddieland on the way.

Skeets and Joyce Hoglund enticed members of the Hoglund family to the Meadows Sunday to enjoy and do some work in the yard. Skeet's mother, Mrs. C. Hoglund, Mrs. Szafran and her sons, Robert and Frankie, Bob and Joan Hoglund and their daughter, Andy, and Hoglund children, Nancy and Susan, helped themselves to a "help yourself" dinner.

Betty Wagner held the monthly meeting of her Little Flower club at her home last Thursday night. This is a club that Mrs. Wagner has belonged to for over 20 years. Guests enjoyed cake and coffee after an evening of 500. The Wagners' son, Bill, and his wife, Ruth, and daughter, Cindy, are going to be staying with them for awhile much to their delight.

Don Finch, Bob Klein and Perry Peregrine spent last Saturday digging a favorite donation, spirea bushes for the park. The younger set are really beginning to enjoy the park with baseball season here and are being very helpful in getting it ready for summer. Sunday morning Dean Valentine, Mark Pelletier, Don and Patty Tucker, Donnie Valentine and Mike Pelletier all helped with the clean up of the winter debris. They did a grand job and have led the way for all younger boys to follow. It is expected that cub scouts will be next to fall in line next Saturday.

It will be the job of the men of the Meadows to help finish up the work for the summer fun and next Sunday it will be necessary to cultivate around bushes so that large mowers will be able to cut the grass without difficulty. It has been suggested that men work by district; that way the same men will not be deprived of fun with their families every weekend. Next Sunday at noon all men on the east end of Bob-O-Link are to be recruited, we hope that a lot of them will turn up at noon with shovels and cultivators to do a job that won't take long and should be a lot of fun.

From now on, new residents of the Meadows will be given a booklet by the welcoming committee that will tell them all the whys and wherefores of living in this community, such as whom do I call for garbage collections? This and many other bits of information were gathered by Jack Pelletier to make the transition from city ways easier. Thanks too to Mr. Berchman who had the booklet printed.

Brownie scouts will be better homemakers because of their last meeting when they all had practical experience making beds and learning how to set a table. The girls brought their completed "sit-upons" to the meeting with their names put on in a variety of ways. Intermediate scouts of the star patrol wrote a play about girl scouts who shared their Easter fun with a little girl who was ill. They did a grand job and found the Clover patrol an appreciative audience. Nancy Hehnan sent a cake to the meeting with her daughter, JoAnn, and with this delicacy the girls enjoyed milk brought by Sherie Seward, Linda Larson and Nancy Jarms. After the play the girls enjoyed games.

Den 13 of the cub scouts started on their feeders and bird houses at their last meeting. Their den master showed them plans and explained how to go about this project. Parents of the boys are to be in on the fun too for the boys are going to build this project at home.

Den 12 had a very busy meeting last week for an assistant 'denner' was elected. Bobby Webber was the chosen one and is sure to carry out his duties well. The boys played games and admired two of the completed bird houses already turned in. Next Saturday is a family fun day for the cub scouts.

Pack 232 which includes the 2 local dens is going on its annual father and son cook-out. It will be held at Deer Grove Park and is for a 7 a. m. breakfast be cooked by the boys but provided by pack 232. Following the breakfast the boys and their fathers will go hiking.

Lee and Evan Wells have turned Sunday into family day at their house and last Sunday the Wells children, Evan Jr., Neil and Marsha, visited the Muesum of Natural History, the museum of science and Industry and the aquarium, leaving right after Sunday school and returning home in time for supper.

Stan and Ruby Polly of Bob-O-Link had Marge and Harry Wolms and their children, Grant and Peggy, for Sunday dinner and a day of golf for the male members. Lorraine and Frank Geraci and their children, Linda and Randy, entertained Jo and Richard McGonegle and their daughter, Sherry, for dinner last Thursday night. Lorraine and Jo went to the Arlington Legion party after dinner.

See you next week.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Man's God-given dominion over the bondage of fear will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, April 24.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation after Death" will include the following from the King James Version of the Bible (Hebrews 2:9, 15): 'But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man . . . And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage."

Among the correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (426:16): "When it is learned that disease cannot destroy life, and that mortals are not saved from sin or sickness by death, this understanding will quicken into newness of life. It will master either a desire to die or a dread of the grave, and thus destroy the great fear that besets mortal existence."

A new use for polyethylene film is in the construction of a house. It can be laid over sand to form a moisture barrier in floors. Pipe for radiant heating is laid on top, and a concrete slab poured over all. Other construction possibilities include a moisture and dust barrier for walls, and flashing around windows.

With The Blue Birds

A grand turnout was evidenced at the Camp Tiyalaka rally held Friday evening at St. Mark church, Mount Prospect. A movie, "Alice Goes to Camp," proved inspirational to all campfire girls and bluebirds. Star of the film was a Mount Prospect Campfire girl. Registrations for camp were taken at the close of the rally.

Blue Bird Parties

Plans for the much-awaited bluebird parties were carried out Monday and Tuesday of this week. Honey Bears bluebirds were hostesses to sections 1 and 3 of the first grade girls at South school Monday and first grade girls of sections 2 and 4 were welcomed at Tuesday's party by the Helping Pixies bluebirds. New girls experienced a typical bluebird get-together. First graders joined the bluebirds in the opening circle and listened attentively as the girls repeated the bluebird wish and sang "Now It's Time to Meet Again." After treats of homemade cookies, the girls played several games to get acquainted. Hostesses for the group also taught their guests several bluebird circle dances.

A gaily-decorated table summoned the girls for a special handicraft session where construction paper, in a rainbow of hues, was set before the girls, together with scissors, paste, staplers, pipe cleaners, and campfire and bluebird stickers. With these helps at hand, bluebirds and their guests made May baskets. The girls were encouraged to take baskets to special friends, shut-ins, teachers, or relatives May day. After a very enjoyable afternoon, the girls gathered for the closing Friendship circle, singing "Pretty Little Blue Bird" and participating in the friendship squeeze.

Mothers' Get-Together

Mothers of all first grade girls at South school were entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Paul G. Crommelin, 818 S. Mitchell. Miss Mariam Dedeian, field director for the Chicago Area Council of Camp Fire Girls, was present and gave a picturesque story of the activities of a bluebird through her 3 years in the junior program of Camp Fire. Flying-up to the Camp Fire level, the new campfire girl would enjoy a program close to home and family life, with Indian lore as its symbolism. At 15, still desirous of a Camp Fire career, the young lady would enjoy the varied activities of the Horizon club. An exhibit of bluebird handicraft, made by the Honey Bears group and the Helping Pixies group, was on display at this time. Refreshments of coffee and cup cakes were served at the close of the meeting.

Do-Nut Days

April 22 and 29 are campfire do-nut days. The public sale takes place in the Chicago loop buildings and train depots. As all well know, campfire girls do-nut sale is part of the Chicago Area Council's fund raising drive and its success is necessary for continuation of the work being done by campfire in the Chicago area and suburbs. Anyone in the loop on either of these Fridays is urged to bring home a box of do-nuts. Anyone desiring home delivery of campfire do-nuts, may call Mrs. Louis M. Schomburg, Clearbrook 3-7017.

This Week with PTA

Send Your Bundle Today!

"Parents whose children bring bundles of clothing to the schools today and tomorrow will not only be helping to alleviate the suffering of thousands of needy youngsters both here and abroad, but will also be teaching their own children a valuable lesson in the importance of thinking of others," states Mrs. E. J. Roble welfare chairman.

Bundle day contributions go to people whose first need is warmth, not style. Heavy underwear, woolen garments and outer clothing, low-heeled shoes, all types of infant wear, sheets and blankets of any size — all are welcome items.

Bags are provided and distribution made by the Save the Children Federation. Volunteer workers from the PTA will assemble and bag the contributions, and because of the time required for this arduous task, Mrs. Roble requests that all clothing be delivered not later than 1 p.m. tomorrow, Friday.

Original Play Feature of Jr. High Program

The problems of the mythical (though perhaps typical?) Snowden children, boy and girl, will be dramatized next Tuesday evening when the junior high PTA will see performers from the Village Theatre enact "Such a Dull Town," an original skit by Mrs. Robert Hawley.

The Snowdens are a family who have left familiar activities and friends to move to Arlington Heights. The title of the play suggests their reaction, but the discoveries they make (and the audience may make a few, too) lead to a happier denouement.

Directed by Mrs. Charles Opela, the cast will feature Virginia (Mrs. Robert) Bishop as Carrie Snowden, the mother; Joe Tomlinson (of the junior high faculty) as Jim Snowden, the father; Dempster Leech as Russ Snowden, the son; and Cheryn Coller as Pam Snowden, the daughter. Other children's roles are played by Allan Hutchinson as Dave, Sharon Smith as Karen, and Karen Meyer as Lynn.

Helpers backstage are Kay Krebsbach, stage manager, and Bobby Hutchinson, properties. The play will be presented in the junior high cafeteria at 8:15 p.m.

An additional attraction will be an unusual exhibition of stamp and coin collections, with displays contributed by 68 students.

PTA members are reminded that copies of the proposed changes in the by-laws will be distributed at this meeting, so that they may be studied before being presented for vote at the general meeting in May. Mothers of sections 5, 6, 7, and 8 of the seventh grade will serve as hostesses following the meeting.

Card Players of the PTA, Unite!

Fun in store, food galore, prizes, who could ask more? If you have not yet made plans to attend the PTA card party a week from today (Thurs., Apr. 28), don't put it off any longer.

Mrs. R. M. Skallerup, hospitality chairman, says that if any newcomers or diffident souls have qualms about coming alone, she has the names of others in the same quandary, and will be happy to arrange a foursome: her phone number is CL. 3-3446. This annual spring event is famous for fostering friendships and general gaiety.

Anyone who has missed being contacted by a room mother (PTA member or not) may obtain a ticket by calling Mrs. Eldred Enloe at CL. 3-0452 or Mrs. Eustace Smeed, ticket chairman, at CL. 3-7532.

Mrs. Enloe and Mrs. Robert Stark, co-chairmen of this event, promise that the soft drink and candy concessions will be operating throughout the evening, and that the evening will be rounded off with the serving of coffee and sandwiches.

Bike Inspection First Week in May

Mrs. Howard Trendel, safety chairman, announces spring bicycle inspection will be held at the various schools the first week in May. After last fall's inspection, when half the bicycles inspected were found to be faulty, it is hoped that a quite different picture will be presented to members of the Arlington Heights police force making the rounds.

Wheels and brakes should be checked to see that they are in good condition; a properly operating signal should be provided (either horn or bell), and a light if the child is allowed to ride after dark. Parents are reminded that these inspections, which take several days and many hours of time for the police force, are for the children's safety.

Members of the PTA will tape the bikes with Scotch-lite tape, an additional safety measure for riding after dark or at dusk, when vision is at its worst.

State Convention Attended By Nine Delegates

The annual convention of the Illinois Congress of Parents and Teachers, held April 14 to 16 in the Conrad Hilton hotel, was attended by 9 delegates from Arlington Heights PTA. These delegates, all 1955-56 officers and committee chairmen, were: president, Mrs. Howard Froyd; vice-president, Mrs. Rupert Vittinghoff; North school chairman, Mrs. Russell Walters; Dryden school chairman, Mrs. Jon Lindstrom; Foreword editor, Mrs. Raymond Erickson; faculty representative (and historian), Mrs. Helen Castor; membership chairman, Mrs. Tadd Wake; hospitality chairman, Mrs. H. A. Cornelius; and safety chairman, Mrs. Peter Toffoli. Also present to handle credentials were Mrs. Charles Baker and Mrs. E. J. Roble.

Mrs. Froyd reports that some of the issues which the congress voted to support or oppose aroused considerable discussion and, in some cases, heated argument. The stand taken by the congress to oppose Senator Broyle's anti-subversive bills (requiring a special loyalty oath for state-paid persons, including teachers) has received slightly distorted publicity in Chicago papers, states Mrs. Froyd.

The convention's refusal to allow Sen. Broyles 30 minutes' speaking time was based, she reports, on the lack of an opposing speaker to provide equal representation of both sides of the issue, and also on the avoidance by the group, as a non-political body, of any action that might be interpreted as political. The ICPT feels that the oath provided for public officials by the state constitution is sufficient.

In addition to recording its opposition to the Broyles bills, the convention also voted to (1) approve the present selective service system, but oppose universal military training; (2) support the UN (there was heated discussion about this); (3) support the supreme court's decision concerning non-segregation in schools throughout the U. S. as well as Illinois; (4) support the proposed 1-year 1% retail sales tax increase, which would largely go to support of schools; (5) support the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in its program for immunization in schools with the new poliomyelitis vaccine, and (6) support the training of the educable mentally and physically handicapped, as well as gifted children.

Seminary Students To Address Presbyterian Women

The April meeting of the Women's association of First Presbyterian Church of Arlington Heights will be a luncheon and program April 27 at 12:30 p.m. in Fellowship hall.

A program entitled, "Full Time Christian Service," will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Albert Goldthwaite, Christian education chairman.

Miss Dolores Goldthwaite, church member, and the Misses Patricia Norton, Sara Westcoat and Mary Ann Robinson will discuss their work as students at McCormick theological seminary in studying to be directors of Christian education.

Church school teachers will be honored during the meeting, and the devotional portion of the program will be given by Mrs. William Busch.

Reservations should be made through unit leaders, or by calling Mrs. Benjamin S. Benson Jr., Clearbrook 3-1730, by noon April 25.

Young Marrieds To Hold Progressive Dinner

Young married couples of First Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights, will hold the first course of a progressive dinner April 29 at the W. B. Salzman home in Mount Prospect.

Main course of the dinner will be at Fellowship hall in the church and the dessert will be at the John Halls, Arlington Heights.

All interested marrieds are invited and can make reservations by calling Mary Tindall at CLearbrook 3-5466.

Girl Scout News

As a prelude to coming outdoor activities troop 315, under the leadership of Mrs. Carl Klehm, completed "sit-upons" at the April 11 meeting. They are looking forward to using them at day camp this summer.

Brownie troop 6 welcomed 4 new members into the troop with the regular investiture ceremony. The investiture included the mirror ceremony with the girls making their brownie scout promise and the leader fastening their brownie scout pin on the right side of the uniform collar. The girls invested were — Jeanne Mayer, Lynne Kramer, Marie Sidor and Susan Uroblewski. The remainder of the meeting was spent in discussing plans for their Mother's day party.

Troop 19, under the leadership of Mrs. John Huskey, reports the 24 girls have completed another phase of heir first class requirement of fostering new friendships. Each girl made and assembled a "Check-po" of 30" square butcher linen and embroidered around the edge. The contents of these kits were school supplies to be sent to a sixth grade child of Korea.

Troops 269, 327 and 328 had a gala time at their roller skating party after school, April 12. The girls were accompanied by their leaders and troop committee members.

From The Police Blotter...

Considerable vandalism and thefts filled the Arlington Heights police blotter this week.

W. E. Kellog, 1005 N. State, reported 7 panes of glass in his garage were broken this week. It appeared as though someone had shot them out with a B-B gun.

Aldrich Home Builders, Westgate subdivision, reported vandals had damaged a brick wall and had taken irons beams and laid them on Wilke rd. They also broke 5 or 6 windows in a home under construction.

More damage to Chicago and North Western property was reported this week. Locks were removed from doors in the depot.

Mrs. Robert Griffith, 408 Carlyle pl., reported an insulated milk storage box had been stolen from their home while they were away for a few days.

A boy's blue toy car was reported stolen by Mrs. B. Love, 900 Fredrichs.

Gordon Reifstahl told police that someone had sideswiped his 1955 Studebaker station wagon while it was parked on Wing st., between Pine and Belmont.

Police aided George Rumsey, 24, Bensenville, who fell from a ladder while working on a home at 823 N. Kasper. He apparently lost his balance when he stepped from the roof to the ladder. He was taken to Resurrection hospital with head injuries.

Mrs. Melvin Laseke lost $240 in the Arlington Heights south side business district Tuesday morning. It was in a brown leather envelope.

YES! Automobile Insurance Costs More Today . . . BUT--
—so does every single thing you buy. With 50,000,000 cars and trucks on the roads, more accidents happen. Cars are fancier and more costly to fix—wages for repair men have gone way up—hospital and medical fees are higher than ever—judgments in damage suits are unbelievably high. All of these factors mean higher premiums for automobile insurance. But even with recent rate increases, you still pay little if any more for automobile insurance than you did ten years ago! Insurance—even automobile insurance—is one of the few truly low priced services today.

Birthday Celebration

Thirteen neighbors and school friends were on hand to help Susan Wiegand celebrate her 9th birthday. Colored flower baskets and little begonia plants for each child bedecked the table.

Mrs. Edward Wiegand spent a few days in the hospital last week. She is at home now and everything is fine.

A social evening at the home of Mrs. Maurice Umbdenstock was enjoyed last Thursday by 12 ladies of the 800 block on Hickory ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Margulis, 914 N. Beverley, entertained their aunt, Mrs. M. Myers from Michigan, by having a small family reunion.

Happy Birthdays

Jeffrey Maloney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Maloney, 926 N. Hickory, had his first birthday Sunday. Attending his birthday party were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bouchee and daughter, Clarene, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Ashel Wauthier, Morton Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. James Fassino and their children, Jimmy and Linda, Skokie. A buffet supper was served in the evening.

Mrs. Ralph Elwart and her son, Michael, had a duo birthday celebration Sunday with paternal and maternal grandparents, other family members and Mrs. Mae Grady, Logansport, Ind.

1,000 Athletes To Set Many Records In Palatine Relays

THURSDAY, APRIL 21, 1955

Covering Northwest and West Suburban Sports

MAC SAYS

— by G. A. McElroy

WITH THE 23RD ANNUAL PALATINE RELAYS only 10 days away it was never more difficult to tell who would win the "B" and "A" class championships. For one thing team records in dual meets is seldom a reliable criteria in figuring who will do well in a relay meet. The Palatine meet is won by schools having well balanced teams with depth at each of the running events.

A relay team is only as good as the fourth best man and many teams with outstanding stars do not have quality in the third and fourth men at the 220, 440, and 880 and the hurdles, and so do not score well at Palatine.

At the same time a team, to win, usually needs to have a few good men in the field events to pick up those points which decide a close meet.

TO US BLOOM OF CHICAGO HEIGHTS and East High of Aurora appear to be real contenders for the "A" class championship to replace last year's winner, Glenbard. East High scored 80 points winning the eight team invitational meet at Ottawa Saturday but again that was a regular track meet and not a relay carnival. East High has balance and much field strength. They took the first three places in the pole vault against real tough competition.

Bloom is very well balanced, won the Naperville Relays indoors, and placed high in the Oak Park Relays. Recently they drubbed LaGrange, 70-48, in a dual meet.

They have an 880 man who runs 2:03, a 53' shot putter, a :52 quarter miler, a 12 foot pole vaulter, and depth for relay purposes at all distances aided by a strong frosh-soph squad. East Rockford will be coming for the first time and there must be a reason. They may be loaded this year. There are so many class "A" schools who are newcomers that at this stage of the season we may be missing the potential champ in our pre-meet predictions.

IN CLASS "B" MOOSEHEART is a likely choice to take the winner's trophy. Last year the Moose took second, 10 points back of Palatine, but they have almost their entire team returning. This includes a two mile relay team which set a record and should break its own next week if the weather and track are right.

Palatine cannot be counted out for they have real class in the mile and 880 relays but the Pirates lack their usual balance.

While only Norman Stenzel is gone from the hurdle shuttle relay teams, he was the big factor and no replacement has been found who can compare. The frosh-soph relay team is well below par, according to Coach Welty, but he likes the chances of his two mile team for a second as they did a year ago.

Palatine will have Jim Hess in the 100 yard dash and Lester Wiese in the mile as pretty certain point winners along with Dave Nesset in the high jump, Leonard Rohde in the shot, and Dave Cornwell in the broad jump.

NORTH CHICAGO, with six lettermen inherited from Waukegan's team which took second in the state, will be a formidable contender. Coach Tom Parker has Vernon Estes, who took second in the 100 yard dash in the state meet, and Raleigh Floyd, who won fourth in the state in the 440. Hezekiah Potts, Danny Baker, John Hughy and Gary Munda are the other lettermen who run the sprints and hurdles, giving North Chicago potential relay winners in the mile, 880, and hurdle shuttle events.

Estes is only a junior and, with Floyd, made up half of Waukegan's 880 relay team which took second in the state last year.

Between North Chicago and Mooseheart Palatine may again fail to win a first place. If North Chicago has much of anything in addition to their colored stars they could take the "B" class.

On paper it would appear Mooseheart and North Chicago would battle it out for first with Palatine and Naperville leading contenders for the third spot. However, Palatine athletes, over the years, have had a faculty for coming up with their best of the season in their own big meet and this year's athletes are good competitors who will be in there ready for a top performance.

Redwings Are Ready To Start New Season

Arlington Heights Redwings baseball team is ready to start season play against the best semi-pro teams in the area or anywhere else for that matter. Manager Bud Blumenthal has been leading the squad through lengthy workouts for the past month and the players are rounding into form.

So far there have been no injuries, although several key men have sore arms. Most serious is that of centerfielder Charlie Perchak who has one of the strongest throwing arms in baseball and who will have many tough throws to make during the season. He should be ready with two weeks to rest before serious play starts.

THE REDWINGS will play a practice game Sunday against St. Peter and St. Paul team of the south side of Chicago. The visitors are new to the Midwest League and it will be a dress rehearsal before the opening of league play. This game will be played at Recreation park in Arlington Heights, starting at 2:30 p.m.

The first big game will be played away from home the following Sunday, May 1. The Redwings run smack into the Skokie Indians at Oakton park in Skokie, Oakton street and Skokie highway. The Indians have a top team with a very fine pitcher who has played several years of professional ball.

The Redwing team will be a solid group of experienced an outstanding players. Only four games have been booked to date, so as to insure the quality of the opposition.

It was just learned the Redwings will travel to St. Joseph, Mich., for a game with St. Joe Suscoes Friday night, May 27. The Suscoes are former national semi-pro champions.

Last Chance To Sign For Heights Little League

Saturdy, April 23, will be the last chance for Arlington Heights Little Leaguers to register. The time has been set for 9 a.m.-12 noon at the field house, instead of from 9:30-10:30, as stated in last week's paper. Registrants must bring birth certificates, $1 registration fee and a parent. Parent waiver fee will also be $1 per family.

It is suggested Pony Leaguers and 12 year olds register early so as to make tryouts on time. The same tryout schedule as published last week will be in effect, also for April 30 and May 7.

There is a great need for more managers and coaches, especially on the south side. Any man wishing to give this much needed service is asked to call Joe McGrath, 1222 Woodford, CLearbrook 3-0583.

To Form Booster Club At Arlington High Monday

Formal organization of "Cardinals Booster Club" will be completed Monday night, April 25, when about 350 residents of Arlington Heights high school district 214 meet in the high school cafeteria. Kick-off is slated for 8 p.m.

Following the successful pattern of similar organizations in the other 7 West Suburban conference schools, the local club proposes to support the activities of the local high school for the good of the youth, the school, and the community as a whole.

The idea of a booster's club of one sort or another is not new, but this is the first time in the history of school district 214 that definite steps have been taken to bring one into being. Meeting informally, a small group of parents, and other patrons of the school, studied the character and functions of similar clubs in the other conference towns, and evolved a set of by-laws to be proposed for adoption.

A NOMINATING committee was appointed to recommend officers for election at Monday's meeting, and an announcement letter was circulated for election to some 350 names supplied by Harold Slickenmyer, superintendent, and W. C. Grace, athletic director, respectively.

From this nucleus it is hoped the organization will grow and include not only parents of high school students participating in activities, but parents at junior high school level as well, and local businessmen who have always shown their willingness to back the school.

MEMBERSHIP in the "Cardinals Booster Club" will be open to all adults residing in school district 214, with an annual membership fee of $1.00 per person. In addition to whatever moral support and encouragement such an organization may offer, material benefits to the school may also be accomplished by means of certain fund raising activities throughout the year. It is in this latter field that some of the other conference organizations have accomplished great good, and through contributions and grants have been able to provide the school with many articles of equipment, uniforms, and other materials impossible to acquire under ordinary operating budget.

Members of the organization committee include: Floyd Burns, Herbert France, Wm. Harrington, E. J. Harris, Herbert Jacobsen, Harrison Kennicott, Cal Klehm, R. L. Kimbrough, Harold L. Lussow, Anthony Carlino, Edward E. Dahlquist, Martin Maher, Harold Malvahn, Herman Mueller, Everett E. Plank, W. H. Palmer, Albert Rose, John Randag, Neil L. Riggs, Sylvester, Striegel, D. W. Vittum, Wallace Wilkerson, John Kehe, John Flaherty, Herb Carl, Dick Black, Bill Turner, Ernie Stavros, Roger Ryden, Erle Ellis, Ava H. Meyer, Henry Winterbauer, Chas. E. Barrow.

50 Schools To Compete Next Week Saturday

The twenty-third running of the Palatine relays Saturday, April 30, will not only be different in that there will be a record entry list of more than 50 schools and 1,000 athletes, but also in many changes in the running of the meet.

This year, in addition to medals given to 5 places in each event in each class, there will be trophies awarded to the winner in each relay event. A total of 12 individual relay trophies will be presented. The winning team in each class will receive a permanent trophy, plus a leg on a big traveling trophy, put in competition 3 years ago by the George Spies company, manufacturers of the medals used in the meets the past 10 years.

The traveling "A" trophy has names of Ottawa in 1953 and Glenbard 1954 engraved upon it while Lake Forest and Palatine each have 1 leg on the "B" trophy. Three victories give permanent possession.

THIS YEAR the morning section of the meet will start earlier at 9:00 a.m. and spectators will not be allowed on the infield where the events are being run. Tickets will be required for the morning but will be good also for the afternoon session at 75c for adults and 50c for students with identification cards.

The morning track schedule will be frosh-soph 440 yard relay prelims at 9:00, 100 yard dash prelims at 9:30, two mile relay finals at 10:15, 100 yard dash semi-finals at 11:00, and high hurdle shuttle relay in class "B" at 11:30.

Field events in the morning will be completed in all 5 events with each class competing in a different pit or field area in order to speed up the trials due to the big increase in entries.

CLASSIFICATION of schools was changed this year with the "B" division being moved up to 700 enrollment. Still, the "A" class with a flood of more than a dozen new entries may total as many as 26 schools. LaGrange, York, Bloom, and Maine will be the largest schools in the meet while Serena, Somonauk, and Oswego will be the smallest.

This year the entry list is so large that "B" teams will dress in the old gym and "A" class schools in the new gym. All competitors will wear numbers which will be their admission to the field. Special bleachers are being set up close to the finish line, which will be reserved for coaches and the press.

Entries this year cost each school 50c a man, which actually is just the price of student admission to the meet. An athlete may compete in as many events as his coach sees fit.

MRS. WILLIAM MASON, Palahigh cafeteria manager, is preparing to serve 1,000 lunches to competitors, coaches, managers and meet officials. Reservations of schools paid in advance are their guarantee of a noon meal.

A service started a few years ago of providing mimeographed copies of the meet results 15 minutes after the meet closes has been appreciated by the coaches and will be continued. This service is provided by the high school office staff.

Sam Marzulo, athletic director of Maine Township high school, will again serve as starter for the meet. His work last year was the best in the history of the event, and this does not mean others have not done a good job.

J. E. Stutzman, Palatine high athletic director, is chairman of the relays committee and does the heavy work of organizing the meet, assigning help, and seeing the field is ready for the big day. Others on the relays committee at the high school are R. K. Welty, head track coach; Charley Feutz, assistant track coach; Howard Stinson, in charge of scoring and awarding of medals and trophies; Hale Hildebrandt, assistant to the starter in lining up relay teams in advance of their call to run; M. M. Plate, supervisor of all field events in the morning program and the control of grounds in the afternoon; and

AMONG THE RECORDS we expect to have seriously threatened are the two mile and mile relays in both classes. Last year East Aurora and Mooseheart in their respective classes set outstanding new marks in both events, and both have just about the same runners available again. It is our guess North Chicago will wipe out the 880 relay mark in class "B" of 1:34.9 set by Bensenville way back in 1941.

The "A" class shuttle relay marks are likely to fall, considering the class of competition. Vernon Estes of North Chicago should find the 100 yard mark of :10.4 easy to break. Palatine's Jim Hess has been clocked under that mark twice this season.

Bowers of DeKalb and Imrie of Joliet have both been running the mile under the 4:36.3 record set by Bowers last year. Last Saturday Bowers ran the events in 4:29.9 and Imrie was clocked in 4:32.3.

The shot, discus, high jump, broad jump, and pole vault have such good records that marks beyond anything recorded by athletes of the entering schools will be necessary. Of the group the class "B" broad jump of 21' 3¼" is most likely to go.

BOB KELTON of Libertyville, who is starting his 10th campaign as coach of the Wildcats in track, has a nine year record of 61 victories in dual meets as against only seven defeats. Kelton had five undefeated seasons in 1947, 1949, 1950, 1951, and 1953. Libertyville won North Suburban championships in 1950, 1951, and 1953.

Meanwhile, the Cats have had losing teams rather consistently in the other sports, which makes Kelton's coaching accomplishment all the more noteworthy.

Barrington, winner of North Suburban track crown last year, has only three lettermen back in Fred Schramm, Ken Yaeger, and Dick Isset. None were top flight performers making Tom Fredrick's job of rebuilding a tough one. In baseball Barrington is also lacking in veterans and has dropped their first three league games.

Friday and Saturday of this week the Illinois High School Coaches Association will hold its spring football clinic at the University of Illinois. The entire two day program will be handled by Coach Ray Eliot and his Illinois staff. More than ever the emphasis in the clinic will be on teaching fundamentals and practical demonstrations.

ON THE TRACK SQUAD at Illinois is Dick Cline of Glenbard, soph miler . . . Arlington's Bob Baker, who was "practice teaching" in physical education at the local high school, is back at DeKalb and pitching for Huskies nine . . . On the Illini golf roster is Bruce Peterson of York, playing for Coach Ralph Fletcher, Glenbard football and basketball coach of 19 years ago . . . Returning tennis letterman at Illinois is Ed Pechous of Downers Grove, who may be forsaking the sport for studies, instead . . . Ron Prellberg of Heights is one of 2 returning golf lettermen at Ripon, with first match Saturday against Carroll college.

Twilight league golfers are reminded Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament will be held the third Sunday in August. First place teams of August 6 will be eligible.

Greens fees of $10 per 4-man team will be payable with entry when the time comes, with most leagues paying the dough from league funds . . . We think that's a good idea, spreading the cost over the entire membership . . . 122 candidates have reported for spring drills to Illini grid coach Ray Eliot in his quest for "tackles, guards, centers and fullbacks" . . . Bob McKown of LaGrange is one of the halfbacks listed.

BAD WEATHER cancelled the complete program of sports activities at Arlington Heights high school Tuesday, moving 2 ball games, a tennis match and golf match to other dates. Down Bensenville way only 1 golf match was able to be held this past week, again due to rainy weather. This means an easy time for sports writers, but headaches aplenty for athletic directors.

Next Tuesday will be the heaviest day of sports contests for the season for the Cardinals with golf, tennis, track and 2 ball games, all at Arlington.

Other call-offs due to bad weather this past week included Niles track meet and Hinsdale baseball (twice). Added events include Leyden soph baseball Wednesday, April 20, Glenbrook track April 22 and frosh track meet with Elmwood Park May 6.

THE LAST few years, with more intense competition, most of the relay marks have been broken. Only the 880 relay marks go back of 1950. Seven new ones out of a possible 12 relay events were set last year.

Oldest is the class "B" 880 mark of 1:34.9 set by Bensenville in 1941. Next is the 1:34 flat in the 880 relay established in 1947 by Niles.

The 100 yard dash in class "A" has not been threatened in recent years. Kraemer of Woodstock ran a :10.1 down hill with the wind in 1934 but state champ, Zedrow of Naperville, tied this mark without aid of wind in 1941. No one has come near it since, but this may be the year with so many fine teams competing.

Oldest field record is the unusually fine pole vault mark of 12'7" set in 1935 by Merwin of Woodstock, who took first in the state that year.

MANY RECORDS besides that of Merwin in the pole vault were set in the 1935 meet and for a good many years that meet set the pattern of excellence in the field events. It was that year that Carl Megel, who started the meet as an invitational track met in 1933, moved to a teaching job in Chicago early in April and the present school administrator at Palatine high took over as track coach.

It was that year that Eddie Hahnfeldt, one of Palatine's greatest field men of all time, set a record of 145'6" in the discus throw, with the college size discus then in use in high school, and set a javelin mark of 187'3", an event long since discarded from high school meets in Illinois. Hahnfeldt went on later to set all time records in both events at the naval academy.

However, 1954 greatly eclipsed the 1935 banner year with the exploits of Dick Winterbauer of Arlington Heights gaining national prominence as he tossed the shot 56'3¾" and threw the discus 163' 3½" for marks we will talk about for another decade or two.

AFTER 1937 the meet was divided into "A" and "B" classes with 300 enrollment the division point and the relay angle of the meet took precedent over individual events with more of them added and a point differential established of 10-8-6-4-2 for relays as compared with 5-4-3-2-1 for individual events. Up to that time Libertyville and Arlington Heights had 2 winners and Naperville 1.

Naperville took advantage of the relay angle to cop the "A" class 5 years in a row, under John Harshbarger's coaching.

In "B" class Geneva, coached by Carl Nelson, now football and wrestling coach at Beloit college, won 3 years in a row but their monopoly was stopped by Palatine who copped the 1941-42-43 meets in the days when Anton Cipri, John Senne, Silas Trepus, Bob Hollinger, Bob Trieme, John Warder, Harold Schwolow, Bob Muehlfeldt, Lester Guenther, Klaus Timmerhaus, Jim Langhoff, the Field brothers, Ray Hahnfeldt, Dick Stinson, Clarence Vogt, John Anderson, and others were competing for the gray and maroon.

After a long period from 1943, Welty's 7 time in a row Northwest champs finally copped the relays crown last year. Other Northwest conference schools which have won the "B" division of the Palatine Relays were Bensenville, coached by John Trapp in 1944, Antioch coached by John Kroll in 1947 and Grant, directed by Tony Antonini in 1948.

Name Starters For Cardinal Frosh Nine

"Prospects mediocre, no cut yet!"

That best sums the activity of the freshman baseball team at Arlington Heights high school where almost 60 boys have been working out with Coach Maurice Klotz. Tuesday's opening game at North Chicago was washed out, to be played Monday, April 25. A game with Niles is slated for Tuesday, April 26.

THE BATTERY for Cardinal freshmen is a certainty. It includes Dennis Thill on the mound with Dick Nickelson catching.

Starting infield will probably include Jim Perry at first, Randy Virgil at second, Alan Hutchinson at short and Bruce Bjorklund at third. First and seocnd are not set yet, however.

The outfield is still very much in the air, though 5 boys have been listed. Included are Ted Bartman, who also pitches, John Kelly, Bob Koceja, Ed Schumacher and Lee Askelof.

Maine Raps Out 23 Hits To Beat Arlington Nine, 20-0

It shouldn't happen to a dog.

That was the comment heard after Arlington's 20-0 baseball loss at Maine Monday afternoon in a game transferred from Rec reation park due to wet grounds.

Maine crossed the plate 20 times. The Cardinals failed to cross once. But in everything else in the way of inadequate baseball Heights was far ahead.

MAINE SCORED 2 in the first 5 in the second, 3 in the third, 3 in the fourth and 7 in the sixth. Arlington chalked up its 2 hits in the fourth after Denny Maher and Jerry Sauter had both fanned. Stan Fletcher then singled, as did Dave Lynk.

Bob Harrington was walked, filling the bases. Don Butts rapped a grounder to second and the threat was over, with the locals still on the short end of a 10-0 tally.

Ted Langlie twirled for Maine, fanning 12, walking 1, and permitting 2 hits. He also rapped out a single, double and triple to help his mates pound out 23 hits.

FOR ARLINGTON it was Charles, Winkelman and Getts on the mound as Coach Howard Lester used all but 1 man in the game. But it wasn't the pitchers who were at fault, it was just one of those days when only 1 player, Dick France at third, played good ball.

There were missed catches chalked as errors, there were many other misses scored as bad judgment (and hits). Time after time Heights outfielders slipped on wet turf in low spots, and looked awkward doing it. Only one fly was caught in the Card outfield.

The locals committed 11 errors.

TOM PRUCHA, won 7 to 0, from Glenbard on his 3 hit pitching for Downers Grove at home. He struck out 13. Ron Baukol hit a Downers Grove home run.

In other league games John Seul's two hit pitching won, 3 to 0, for Hinsdale over Riverside-Brookfield and LaGrange won, 4 to 2, in York. Seul struck out 14.

Batteries—Seul and Stanicek; Anderson and Hirt.

Batteries — Meyer and Wormley; Stuenkel, Benedict and Wilson.

Card Sophs Pick Lineup For Opener

Starting lineup for the frosh-soph baseball squad at Arlington Heights high school has been named by coach "Bus" Ormsbee with the season opener planned for this Friday at Leyden. Tuesday's scheduled game at North Chicago was washed out until Monday, April 25.

Jerry Klement has been named No. 1 hurler for the Heights sophomores, with Pat Brownell backing him up. Ed Meinken has been selected behind the plate.

THE INFIELD includes Tom Jacobsen at first, Ted Geocaris at second, Larry Webber at short, and Pat Brownell or Tom Thackery at third.

In the outfield will probably be Ronald Jonas or Don Plank in left, Jack Palmer or Ron Holznagel in center, and Dean Skadberg in right.

THERE ARE STILL 26 boys on the squad, with 16 making trips. Coach Ormsbee is still thinking of moving a couple of freshmen up from the frosh squad but has not made his choice as yet.

Needless to say, the team is still itching to get into action with competition still the best way to determine baseball possibilities, rather than practice sessions.

Basketball Numeral At Northwestern

Bill Breyer, former high-scoring center on Palatine high school's basketball team was one of 10 Northwestern freshmen to earn basketball numerals last season.

At 6 feet, 5 inches, Breyer was 1 of the 2 tallest players on Coach Bernie Brady's yearling squad.

He and his teammates next year will be competing for the vacancies on the Wildcat varsity left by the graduation of five seniors from the squad that took fifth in Big 10.

Arlington Pitcher Leads DeKalb Hitters On Southern Trip

The old adage that pitchers can't hit can be disputed by the Northern Illinois State baseball team. After the Huskies' six-game southern trip early this month, four of the top five hitters on the squad were pitchers. Bob Baker of Arlington Heights and Carl Johnson of Chicago were tied for first with .500 averages. Larry Dangerfield of Walworth Wis. had a .333 mark and Lou Bissa of Calumet City a .286 average.

Palatine To Run In R-B Relays

Morton apparently is in for a battle royal Friday to retain its Riverside-Brookfield Relay crown this year as the host school and Palatine, Class B and Class C victors in the Oak Park Relays last month, challenge the Mustangs in the fourth annual edition of the relays.

Eleven teams have entered the meet, including Downers Grove, Glenbard, Hinsdale, Leyden, Palatine, Morton, Reavis, Rich, University High, Wheaton and the sponsor school.

Ten relays and 13 individual events feature the varsity and frosh-soph competition.

WARD MILLER of Glenbard, winner of the Naperville Relays and the West Suburbs' 50 yard dashes indoors, draws challenges from Don Cerwin of the host school, Dick Jakyl of Hinsdale and Jim Hess of Palatine in the 100 yard dash.

A classic field of milers includes Dick Beastall of Morton Suburban league indoor half-mile champion, Tom Mansager of Riverside-Brookfield, Leonard Wiese of Palatine and Phil Shepard of Glenbard.

ONE RECORD seems safe this year. Last year Dick Winterbauer of Arlington Heights registered the best mark in the nation for 1954 by tossing the discus 175 feet 5 1/4 inches for a new R-B relays record.

Last year 11 new records were set.

Palatine 6th Ottawa Relays

Palatine found the competition very tough at Ottawa last Saturday where they finished sixth among a field of eight schools, all of which were much larger in enrollment. East Aurora won the meet with 80 points followed by DeKalb 53½, LaSalle-Peru 51½, Glenbard 45, Wheaton 22½, Palatine 20, Joliet 16½, and Ottawa 16.

Feature of the meet was the mile duel between Bowers of DeKalb and Imrie of Joliet. Bowers won in 4:29.9 with Imrie 4:32.3, both bettering the record by quite a margin. Miller of Glenbard was the individual winner in the 100 yards dash with a mark of :10.3 running against the wind.

PALATINE'S best effort was a second in the 440 by Alan Eck in :54.1. Leonard Wiese was fifth in the mile at 4:53, Jim Hess got fourths in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Dave Nesset tied with several others for second in the high jump at 5'7". Bob Fremd got a fifth in the pole vault, Leonard Rohde tossed the 12 pound shot 45'3" for a fifth, the 880 relay team took a fifth and the mile relay a sixth. There were six places scored in the meet. Bruce Mc Clung ran a fine 2:09.9 half mile but was not in the top six.

This week Friday the Pirates will be running in the Riverside-Brookfield Relays a meet in which there is every type of relay known to high school prep circles. This meet will give Palatine and Arlington a pretty good preview of their relay strength for the Palatine relays the following week. Wednesday of this week Palatine and Arlington Heights were scheduled in a triangular meet at LaGrange.

Cardinal Soph Nine At Recreation Park When Varsity Isn't

Arlington Heights high school baseball fans, at the sophomore level, are reminded all home games of the sophomores are played at Recreation park when the local varsity is not playing there.

Otherwise, the frosh-soph nine will be competing on the high school diamond. Frosh nine always plays on the high school field.

The grip is an important part of any golf game. That goes for the ladies, as well as the men, with the fair sex to again have a chance to learn some of the finer points of golf at this year's free golf classes sponsored by Paddock Publications.

Sessions are slated for the first 4 Tuesdays in May at Arlington country club, Route 68, between Arlington Heights road and route 83. No registration is necessary. All any lady duffer need do is show up for the 7 p. m. sessions, one club in hand. "Leave hubby at home, we'll do the talking," state Dan Taggart and George Dayiantis, club pros doing the instructing. —Staff Photo

Palatine Tops Ela For 2nd League Win

Palatine won their second league victory in three starts last Friday on the home diamond as Bob Hamilton, junior right hander, set Ela-Vernon down 4-1 by pitching a one hitter. Jack Gross, Ela third baseman got the only hit off Hamilton, a clean shot to center field, to open the sixth and later scored on a fielder's choice.

Palatine got only 4 hits off Leonard Schiller but used them all in run production. In the fourth George Beyer hit a double, Bob Coates singled Beyer to third, and Steve Cornwell drew a pass to fill the bases. Beyer scored on a tap to third by Bill Eich and Bob Kozy singled home 2 more runs.

IN THE FIFTH Bob Hamilton scored after drawing a pass, moving to third on a hit by Joe Goddard, and coming in on a fielder's choice.

Hamilton allowed one hit, struck out 11 and walked 7. Schiller for Ela allowed 4 hits, fanned 7 and issued 5 passes. It was the only game played with all others being postponed due to wet grounds.

Heights Sports Carnival To Be 'A Show,' Set For May 6

Public opinion has determined the plans of this year's sports carnival at Arlington Heights high school. Emphasis will be on "a show" rather than an exhibition as in the past 2 years. Date is May 6.

Gay Hughes, in charge of the annual affair put on by physical education department of the high school, is determined to accede to requests of "the buying public" of the past 2 years.

He's eliminating the exhibitions that lagged, enlarging upon the parts most applauded, and weaving the group into a show as much as possible.

FIVE MAJOR activities of the phys ed department certain to headline the carnival this year will be weight lifting, wrestling, fencing, band front and gymnastics.

Heights wrestlers will put on some "TV style" bouts, then show their finesse that won state honors. State gymnastics champs will show the form that won the school's first state championship.

GIRL GYMNASTS, midwest tournament champs, will show what they can do, with the ever popular band front in several numbers. The leotards will be back, too.

They Tip With Gift Receipts In Greece, But No One's Happy About It

by BILL DILLINGHAM

The practice of tipping is taking on a new meaning in Greece. Somebody has started a fad here that could easily spread to every other country in the world!

Instead of giving a tip "just to keep up social appearances" (which means reluctantly), the new practice is to hand out receipts for small donations made to certain worthy charities.

SOME PERSON or group of persons in Athens went to several charities in the city and individually donated sums like 150,000 dracma (five dollars!). But in exchange for the money, a number of receipts showing one-thousand dracma were requested. These, in turn, were handed out as tips to doormen, barmen, waiters and other unpleasantly surprised employees.

But in giving 150,000 dracma to a charity and then requesting one-hundred and fifty different receipts, the doner is getting a service which requires a lot of office work. To get around this, and to keep up with the enlarging demand, charities are now printing booklets of tickets to serve in place of the bulky receipts. One need only enter a charity office and in two minutes purchase a ready-made booklet of "tips."

REACTION among employees who are in positions to receive tips is dividing itself into two distinct camps. One group believes that the millions of dracma passed around as gratuities could be put to better use serving research in the battle against disease, as well as social and economic plagues. This is the smallest group, however.

Their opponents, almost the majority of tip-receiving servants, aren't very happy about the new fad because, in the final analysis, nobody is happier in receiving less money regardless of the nobility of the cause.

Bartenders, waiters, doormen and taxi-drivers, however, are finding it hard to openly reject these "tips" in preference to cash. When a customer hands out a ticket for one-thousand dracma in the name of homeless children, milk for babies, relief for earthquake victims or for abandoned mothers, even a mild grunt of disapproval from the unhappy attendant might bring an argument from some listener who was himself a homeless child or an earthquake victim.

ALTHOUGH this new tipping practice is by no means widespread in Athens as yet, the idea of it has enough appeal so that spectators are predicting that it will become a major fashion in Athens.

One drawback, however, is that the custom itself of giving a tip will be weakened. Tipping is surported principally by the desire and the expectation of a gratuity. As soon as the "tickets" are no longer bothered to be collected, citizens here say that tipping will fade out.

To counteract this threat, at least one charity is about to issue tickets that can be turned in again by the waiters and taxi-drivers for sixty per cent of their value.

The seed for this revolution in tipping has started in Greece. If it ever spreads to the United States, charities like the March of Dimes would no longer have to request citizens for driblets.

Seminar At N.U.

A Northwestern University visiting professor of economics will conduct a seminar on "The World Bank and African Development" at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, April 26, in lecture room 122 of Kresge Centennial hall.

A '54 graduate of Arlington Heights township high school where he was a member of the "A" club, on the basketball team and a member of national honor society, Mr. Skelton is now a freshman at the technological institute. He is a member of Delta Upsilon, national social fraternity.

The Waa-Mu show, "High Time," is an original musical revue with a cast of 125, student orchestra of 26, and student production staff of 100. Music and sketches are written by students and alumni.

At Iowa State

First and second place trophies were awarded in both sorority and dormitory divisions, and this year a new sweepstakes traveling award, named the Charlene Sohn memorial trophy, was also given.

First place winners in both groups were scheduled to appear on WOI-TV's Saturday morning program, "Impromptu," on April 23.

'Ugetsu' At Park Ave.

The many Americans who were made keenly aware of Japanese movie art when "Rashomon" was first shown three years ago will have an opportunity to inspect a second major Japanese screen effort when the film "Ugetsu" arrives at the Park avenue Cinema at Park Ridge.

The story of "Ugetsu" revolves about two families during the closing years of the 16th century, an era in Japanese history known as the "Period of the Wars." Spurred by ambitions for wealth and glory, the two husbands leave their homes and families to fulfill their desires. After various bizarre adventures during which they experience brief hours of triumph, followed by disaster, the men return to their homes to rebuild their lives on a surer foundation.

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. Is it proper for a bride-elect to write thank-you notes to all the guests who have attended a shower in her honor?

A. She should write a note of thanks to the hostess. Although not necessary, there is nothing improper about writing to guests if she wishes. But she should entertain these friends at a luncheon or tea, either before or after the wedding.

Q. Is it ever permissible for a woman to place her purse and gloves on the restaurant table while eating?

A. Never. She should keep these articles in her lap.

Q. Should letters of application for a position be written by hand or typed?

A. Generally, a typewritten letter is preferred. However, some firms prefer the handwritten letter to determine the legibility of the applicant's handwriting.

Q. What should be the order of the receiving line at a wedding reception?

A. First, the bride's mother, who is the hostess; then the bridegroom's mother; then the bridegroom, his bride, the maid of honor, and the bridesmaids. The ushers and best man do not stand in the receiving line.

Q. When writing a letter or note to a brother and sister, may one address the envelope, "Miss Mary Morgan and brother?"

A. Never. The envelope should be addressed either to the sister or the brother, never to both.

Q. Is the dessert at a dinner considered a separate course?

A. Yes.

Q. When a girl has been married and divorced very shortly afterwards, and is marrying again, is it proper to send a wedding gift again, in view of the fact that she did not make much use of the first gifts?

A. There really is no obligation to send gifts again. Whether you do or not is up to you.

Q. Do male members of a party at a public dinner table rise when a man stops at the table for a few words with one of the diners?

A. Not unless there is a great difference in age. All younger men rise for a really old gentleman.

Q. Is it improper to wear a corsage at a funeral service?

A. A modest one of violets is not out of place—but it certainly should not be worn by a member of the bereaved family.

Bensenville's election Tuesday was a tame affair with only 59 voters turning out at the polls. The following form the new village board: William F. Franzen, president; Edward B. Freie, clerk; P. T. Tiedemann, treasurer, and F. J. Mess, E. A. H. Warnecke and E. M. Boldebuck, trustees. The general sidewalk ordinance was defeated, 31-25.

The election was also described as calm and collected in Arlington Heights ... There were no free carriage rides as on many former occasions ... The several friends of the candidates walked to the polls to register their rights of franchise and still there was a larger turnout than at any previous time. A total of 348 ballots were cast with the following winners: Henry C. Klehm, president; E. H. Bolte, clerk, and William F. Meyer, Peter Mors and Peter Beyer, trustees.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

BY LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

When you and I take time to look into our lives and see just what we really amount to, we often face a moment so discouraging, so filled with failure and weakness that we could easily abandon our efforts to improve. Perhaps that is why so few of us are given to honest self inventory.

We dream so much and fall so short of realizing those dreams! The cause is not so much lack of ability as the lack of will. Knowing what we should do, we find ourselves unable to overcome the urge to serve ourselves rather than to use our bodies and minds in the service of truth, justice and love. We are given to making fine gestures and doing mean things.

WHERE THERE IS no spiritual growth, our lives take on a drabness that can only be concealed by self deceit. We are each endowed by our Creator with a need for self respect, a feeling of importance, of belonging, creating, doing. When, because of weakness, we fail, we make believe, and fill our lives with shame and hypocrisy instead of growth and accomplishment.

That is why so few of us can face ourselves honestly without excuse or pretense. That is why we take refuge in any form of entertainment, in the costly acquisition of wealth and things, or the hopeless release of drinking or dope—anything to forget the misery of our own shortcomings.

TRY SPENDING an hour, or even ten minutes, in honest self evaluation and you will find how anxiously your mind strives to escape the task. Try placing the blame for some misfortune on yourself and see how desperately your mind strives to place it on other people) or on luck or circumstances over which, assumedly, you have no control.

Representative Sprague Explains Method of Redistricting

Greater local interest will be manifested in the primary of April, 1956 than has ever been shown by local voters in any previous statewide primary.

In two of the senatorial districts served by Paddock Publications, there will be state senatorships up for grabs. Senator Bidwill, River Forest, will be a holdover in senatorial district 1. The redistricting bill provides that the present four year term of a senator shall not be shortened by redistricting.

Bidwill has represented a large strong Republican area for many years. With the new redistricting, it is admitted his Republican majority will be somewhat lessened.

There is no sitting senator in senatorial district 4 (townships of Wheeling, Elk Grove north of Golf road, Northfield, New Trier, Evanston and Niles township), or in senatorial district 3, comprising Barrington, Palatine, Schaumburg and Hanover.

Arthur Sprague, chairman of the state redistricting committee, submitted maps, population figures last Thursday to Paddock Publications.

His explanations as to decisions made by his subcommittees were particularly interesting. Senators elected in November 1956 from odd numbered districts will serve only two years; thereafter four years.

Those elected in 1956 form the even numbered districts, such as Wheeling, Northfield, etc., will serve four years; from Barrington, Palatine, etc., two years.

Two residents of the village of Palatine announced their candidacy for senators within a few hours after last week's issue of Paddock Publications appeared on the street.

HOUSE DISTRICT No. 6 comprises all northern Cook county townships, except the north shore and the village of Glenview. That village had to be added to the north shore towns in order to give them the required population figure which must exceed 119,327. The present seventh district has a population of over 800,000.

There are at present no members of the House of Republicans residing in the new house district No. 6. Berths are open for two Republicans and one Democrat. A resident of Park Ridge phoned Paddock Publications that he was a candidate.

The redistricting means that suburban Cook county will be represented in the state legislature by 15 additional representatives in the house and four additional in the senate.

Only 1950 census figures could be used in the redistricting plans because all areas had not later census figures.

The districts now being revamped will remain until 1963. Under the present constitutional amendment approved by the voters of the state last November, redistricting will take place every ten years.

District 1 in which Palatine has the greatest population, has the largest area of any senatorial district, 136.9 square miles. The area of district 4 is 125.1; No. 1, 121.4. The smallest district in the suburbs is No. 6, 118.6, in the south end of the county.

REPRESENTATIVE Sprague explained to Paddock Publications that the redistricting was done by three subcommittees, each of which was required to reach an agreement among themselves. "For that reason," said Sprague, "there is little doubt but that the report of my committee will be adopted."

Sprague admitted that all but possibly one or two would remain Democratic becaue the redistricting in Chicago was the job of Chicago Democratic representatives. It is reported that Gov. Stratton has threatened to veto the redistricting bill because the senatorial districts in Chicago give the west side block control over the Austin area.

The latest map showing the redistricting of the senate and house appears on another page.

All For Horses

Enclosed is an article taken from the "Palatine Enterprise," stating that, "Town & Country Equestrian Association," is the only such organization in this area.

I wish to make a correction on this and hope you will publish it also. There is an organization called "Palabar Horse Association," and its directors and members are also interested in furthering the sport and has supported such activities for some time.

Although it is a fairly new association it has been invited to participate in the "Horsecapades" this year and has more such shows for the coming season.

They have already had one very successful horse show and are making plans for the next one.

I thought a letter in the Fence Post would be the best way to thank the many people who have sent cards and gifts to me while hospitalized (with malaria again) at Hines. People certainly have been kind and thoughtful to both myself and my family. I appreciate it.

In Appreciation

We, as a business establishment in Prospect Heights, wish to extend our thanks and the appreciation to the whole community for the quick response and the outstanding cooperation given when a fire broke out in the shopping district and gutted several of the business places.

Without the promptness of Arlington Heights, Palatine, Wheeling, Mount Prospect, Niles and Des Plaines fire departments to aid our own Prospect Heights fire department, we may have had a smaller occurrence of "Mrs. O'Leary's Cow." The police of local and state divisions controlled and rerouted traffic on our busy intersetcion of route 83 thereby making it possible for the fire equipment and fighters to more speedily extinguish the blaze.

According to Ed Walpole, Prospect Heights businessman and volunteer fireman, "the teamwork of the responding neighborhood fire departments was extremely commendable."

WATCHING the cooperation of business personnel to help vacate the movable articles from the stores showed how a community in time of stress puts aside personal obligations to lend a helping hand to those who need it first. We also wish to express our personal thanks to our own carpenters who, without question, left their jobs to aid in the removal of new appliances from the smoked infested stores so that they would not be damaged by smoke and water.

Later, with the quick arrival of material from Des Plaines Lumber Co. the carpenters closed up the damaged store fronts to prevent pilferage. Among those we wish to express our gratitude to is long distance operator 44 in Arlington Heights office who was more than helpful in our attempt to reach Carlton A. Smith at his Florida residence. Mr. Smith is the developer of Prospect Heights and owner of the shopping center.

This is a great loss to our community, but plans are already under way to rebuild and further develop Prospect Heights.

We also thank Jim Dean, who got his truck and contributed some time to pick up debris as a result of the fire.

A Politician Answers

Last week Editor Paddock showed an amazing ignorance and utter lack of comprehension about a subject he attempted to write about, when in his column he consigned all politicians of both high and low degree to the category of "bar hounds."

Now just where the venerable editor of the Paddock Publications, after all his years as a newspaperman, came to such a conclusion about politicians, is hard to say.

We have personally mixed around in politics of the lesser variety for nearly half a century and this is the first time we ever had the name "bar hound" tagged on to us.

Furthermore, we have in those 50 years attended hundreds of political meetings and banquets where there were from 300 to 1000 "politicians" present, elected representatives of the people, some of the finest people you could want to meet, where not a thing stronger than water was served to drink and yet in the opinion of Editor Paddock, the whole crowd was simply "bar hounds."

We wonder what good friends of the editor like Bill Busse, Mrs. Van der Vries, Mrs. Church and others, who have served the territory served by the Paddock papers with honor and distinction will think of brother Paddock at classing them all as "bar hounds."

EDITOR'S NOTE: The officeholders mentioned above are, in the opinion of the editor, statesmen, not politicians.

People who live in glass houses really shouldn't throw rocks and it's a noted fact that members of the newspaper profession, trade, or whatever you call it are among the most notorious patrons there are of places where they serve the cheering cup, and those of the fourth estate who patronize such places are always glad to see some politician pick up the tab.

Can it be that the editor got his idea of politicians from 'way back in the old days' when the white hatted boys of the syndicate used to come around and corrupt local officials by dangling a fire truck or a police car before their eyes in return for opening up the town to the slot machines.

Those boys in the white hats were never averse to buying a drink for the boys or even a suit of clothes for an editor if he would agree not to see the slot machines, or at least keep still about what he saw.

After all these years it seems strange that Editor Paddock should come up with such a distorted idea about politicians; he must have been to some meeting where some of the boys were having a few, got disgusted and suddenly concluded that all politicians should be tossed into the same kettle and labeled "bar hounds."

Wherever he got the impression he'd better get rid of it, he owes an abject apology to every decent politician in the country for dumping them all into a skid row classification.

So the editor can't be a candidate for state senator from the new third district because he refuses to become a "bar hound"?

Oh well, the third will try to struggle along somehow, probably the senator we elect will take a drink or two on occasion but we don't see a solid district of Palatine, Hanover, Schaumburg and Barrington township electing a "bar hound."

Tom Hart
Palatine, Ill.

Red Cross Drive

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my area captains and their volunteer workers for their help in making the Red Cross drive for Palatine township such a huge success this year.

Everyone helped make it a success and in case you haven't heard Palatine went over their quota and we are all very proud. Our quota was $2,100.00 and we collected $2,503.77. So you see we really went over the top.

The credit belongs to all of the volunteer workers in this area and again I say thank you for your good work.

JUST from Patty McArdle AROUND THE CORNER

Dear Peg:

I was a guest at a very clever and profitable (I'm sure) benefit recently and knowing how you and your church group are interested in new ideas for making money, thought I'd pass this one along. Maybe you have done this before or something like it, but we haven't and I'd love to see our guild do the same thing next year. The benefit was appropriately and cleverly called "The Wedding March." Six women had graciously opened their homes and decorated them to represent some particular affair having to do with the bridal theme—a most timely theme! The houses could be visited any time from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and for the price of the ticket ($3.00) luncheon was served at the Woman's Club from 12 to 2 p. m.

The first house we saw was decorated for the announcement party. On the first floor, in the dining room was a lovely table set with trays of hors d'oeuvres and crystal punch bowls. In the center was an arrangement in a three-tier glass vase of ivy and white glads. The basement recreation room in this home was the most unique I've ever seen. Behind a large, very modern, divan was what appeared to be a corner window through which one had a view of Michigan Boulevard lighted at night. The photograph had a three dimensional look because of the color and the lighting from behind. But, across the room from this what do you suppose? Guests could walk right on the "terrace" and look "out" over a brick wall "down" to another lighted loop "street." The effect was really quite different and dramatic. Bowls of pop corn and glasses of refreshment stood on the coffee tables and the bar, curved and of contemporary design.

FROM THE GAY "Announcement Party," we went to the "Shower Luncheon." It was just precious, all in pink and white. Pink cupid vases stood on the dining table and were filled with tiny pink rose buds. The china and candles were white and the white organdy table cloth was placed over a pink under cloth. Gifts were all wrapped and set artistically on a large coffee table in the living room. Under the gifts and over the coffee table, the hostess had put a large pink chintz cloth the bottom of which was caught up every foot or so with a bunch of lilies-of-the-valley—unusual and beautiful.

From the pink and white "Shower Luncheon" we drove over to "Bachelor Dinner." Dark, masculine color were used in the setting of the dining room table. The flower arrangements were in "black hats" of various sizes and the glasses used for refreshments were decorated with a ball and chain (entwining a big red heart).

THERE WAS EVEN a bride and her attendant at the "Bridal Reception," to say nothing of a huge three layer wedding cake. Silver vases filled with roses decorated the banquet table for the "Silver Anniversary" and beautiful golden goblets, gilt-edged china and gold flat ware presented a spectacular small table for "Golden Wedding."

All the flower arrangements were donated and members of the church guild helped by loaning pieces to complete settings. The luncheon was a frozen pot pie, cole slaw, cake and coffee, so you see there really was little overhead or expense. It was timed perfectly—right after Easter (Everyone was in a festive mood) and just a couple of weeks before June, the month of the brides, which accounted for the marvelous turn-out. I'm anxious to know how much was actually cleared—if you're interested, dear, I'll let you know.

My love,
Patty.

QUITE CONTRARY

BY MARY

The other day as we sat perusing Life, the magazine, not the real thing, we saw an article about a typewriter that had been set up on the street. We were too too glad to note that the typewriter was bolted down to a post upon which it rested. It isn't that we don't trust people, it is just that so many of them are dishonest.

The passing parade was encouraged to stop and write upon the machine and Life's reporters, the nosey things, then read what had been written. Out of all the mob, the sentence written most was, of course, "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party." Others, of a more inventive frame of mind, wrote their names and told about what good kids they were. We keep wondering what that party all the good men came to the aid of and why the stupid old party was in need of all that aid in the first place.

We probably have been too cocky about our knowledge of the young. After all, we do have quite a large mob of the things. But came the revelation and our rock like poise was shaken to its very foundation. The reques: that came our way was really very simple and yet we cravenly used every excuse at our command to weasel out of what was clearly our bounden duty.

All that we were asked to do was teach a bunch of four year olds in Sunday school. With the fear and trepidation that we managed to whip up one would have thought that we had been askd to scale Mt. Everest alone and in a bathing suit. So we know our own 4 year old, even we are smart enough to know that she does not constitute the whole age. And besides, we don't even know how the Sunday school operates. All of these excuses and more were proffered to the supervisor of the group but she remained adamant. We suspect that she had met our ilk before and knew exactly how to deal with such craven humans.

Anyway dressed in our best which is none too good by any standard but which we thought might bolster our morale to at least operating pitch, we set out to do our duty as mother and class mother to a bunch of 4 year olds. We wish all to know that we managed to get across to the little dressed up whachamacallits that Moses had really been put in the bullrushes by his sister and that after the good princess found him, that his real mother was hired to be his nurse. This brought the story to a happy ending and seemed to satisfy the young.

We left the church in the company of our own 4 year old who was too thrilled for words that her very own mama had been the teacher. If we weren't afraid that some church member would take us up on it, we would go out on a limb and offer our somewhat dubious talents as a teacher of 4 year olds, in Sunday school that is. However, we are sure that this feeling of accomplishment and well done job will dissipate before long and we would start weaseling again.

One of the American Cancer Society's most powerful weapons in its April Cancer Crusade is the increased opportunity to reach the public with its lifesaving educational program designed to get people to their doctors in time, when cancer is still in its early, curable stages. One of the many methods of getting the Society's message across to the public is the window display which tells the story of the fight against the nation's second leading killer. Shown here is a display of ACS educational material in a window at Van Driel Drug store, Emerson and Highway 14, Mt. Prospect, generously donated by Herbert Van Driel for the month of April. —Staff Photo

Building - Remodeling - Improving

In the Shadow of + + + The Steeple

by William O. McGill

The boy came to the door at the program office of the settlement house and asked for some "comic books." He may have been 12 at the time. So I reached into the cabinet and gave him some of our comic books. "Bugs Bunny," "Mickey Mouse," and that type of book.

They were returned with the statement that he did not want these "funny books," he wanted "comic books" with adventure, crime and punishment and all that is involved in what most of us think of when we hear the term.

IT HAD TAKEN me a long time to come to the point of view that comic books were more than just a cheap form of cheap literature and cheap art. What convinced me was that P. B. Priestley has summarized much better than I, in "The New Statesman and Nation," sometime last summer, "It's not the sex, it's the sadism."

The cowboy movies on television seem to be especially devoted to this aspect of "entertainment." We have the normal amount of them going through the week. Believe me, they are the poorest shots. The good guys (as the children call them) can hit all kinds of bottles in the air, dollars in the air, the edge of a card at fantastic distances—but they can't hit a man.

THEY HAVE TO thrown the gun away and beat him to a pulp. Offhand, this might sound less lethal. But comparatively few small boys can find guns carelessly left about the house, fully loaded. And comparatively fewer boys will start shooting at another boy; even so, his aim may be poor. This is not to overlook or to minimize that danger, but it is comparatively infrequent.

Almost every boy has 2 hands and 2 feet. Any one of them can get into a sufficient amount of battles without being encouraged to it by those who are pointed up to him as heroes, and without being taught special little tricks with hands and feet.

Priestley suggests, "We might see to it that the hero is not so often kicking people in the stomach and then smashing their faces into red pulp . . . It will be as well if the citizens of tomorrow do not take it for granted that people they dislike should be beaten, pounded, minced. The red-pulp view of life should be discouraged."

OF COURSE, there is some latent savagery in all of us. One of the functions of civilization as exercised in home, and church, and school is to develop a personality in which such savagery is not going to be made evident. A culture is the combination of nurture and understanding which a person displays in his daily thinking and acting.

Why spend all the time and money and effort that we spend on schools and churches if we are going to blithely ignore the fact that a fairly potent poison is counteracting our efforts—at a much cheaper price, in a more readily available market. Almost any drug store or newsstand, at 10 or 15 cents, is dispensing more poison than all the churches and schools in a town can combat.

How to Save Paint

A SIMPLE way to save paint and keep your paint can clean is shown in the illustration from American Builder, authoritative publication for building contractors.

Simply make a bar out of a section taken from a tin can, and lap the edges. Near each end cut notches so the bar may be fitted over the lip of the paint can. Locate the bar so that about three-fourths of the can is open for easy dipping of the brush into the paint. Wiping the brush on the bar prevents splattering and conserves paint.

Lighting Tips for Homemakers

The following are questions most frequently asked of General Electric lamp division residential lighting authorities by families who are buying or building a new home:

WHAT SHALL I look for when selecting lighting fixtures for a new home or when remodeling an older one?

To avoid the same harsh lighting effect of bare, unshielded bulbs, choose lighting fixtures with frosted, ceramic-enameled or opal glassware. These types of glass shields softly diffuse the light for most comfortable, easy-on-the-eyes lighting.

Clear or thinly frosted glass can't possibly "smooth" the light and conceal the bare bulb. Avoid those heavily painted or other heavy glassware that are so dense the light actually can't get through.

HOW MUCH should I spend on lighting fixtures for my new home?

That, of course, depends upon what price home you are buying. However, a good rule of thumb is to allow a minimum of one to one and a half per cent of the cost of the house for lighting fixtures, including valance lighting for the living room.

Remember, lighting fixtures, like plumbing fixtures aren't replaced as frequently as your floor and table lamps so don't be penny wise and pound foolish. Small, inexpensive and inefficent lighting fixtures are no bargain. The nighttime appearance of your home is dependent upon the lighting fixtures you give it. Choose only those that can give service and provide most comfortable and attractive lighting for family living.

HOW CAN I be sure when a new house has sufficient electrical outlets for may family's needs?

First of all, visualize your furnishings, both new and old, in each room. If possible, measure furniture and make cut-out patterns to scale. Then, if you don't have a set of plans for your house, borrow them from your builder. Arrange furniture on plans to help locate the outlets where you'll really need them. This helps avoid finding yourself with outlets behind heavy pieces of furniture such as sofas, beds or refrigerators.

Chemical Warfare Protects Trees From Air Attack

An airborne army has invaded treeland. Only prompt chemical warfare can prevent casualties.

The enemy troops are fungi, so small that they can't be seen unless magnifield 100 to 200 times. Their spores or seeds are spread throughout the country by spring winds and rains.

Though the average home owner doesn't know they exist, these fungous spores will soon be floating in the air according to Davey tree experts.

When they land on trees, the fungi cause disease. Some of the fungi are partial to certain types of tree. Others aren't so particular and cause damage wherever they happen to land.

Best means of killing fungous diseases before they kill decorative foliage is by spraying leaves with a chemical fungicide. One of the chemicals used for this purpose is ferbam, an organic iron salt. When this is spread over the leaf surface harmful fungi are killed on coming in contact with it.

Despite their tremendous value, fungicidal sprays have been ignored by many home owners because repeated applications are required and the diseases themselves often go unnoticed until the damage is done. But fruit growers consider fungicide spraying so important that they use up to 12 or more such sprays per season. No tree can be healthy without healthy foliage.

Fungous disease are most prevalent in the more humid sections of the country, such as Kentucky, Maryland, District of Columbia, southern Ohio and Pennsylvania, and parts of Illinois and Indiana. Repeated defoliation of a tree can weaken it so that it becomes an easy target for hungry insects and dies a slow death. Fungous disease can destroy all the leaves on a tree in a single season.

County Conference On Teen Crime Called for June 2

Cook county sheriff Joseph D. Lohman has announced a county-wide program to combat juvenile delinquency.

A conference of suburban leaders has been called for June 2 when officials from Chicago will join with those of outlying areas to plan an attack on delinquency on a neighborhood and community basis.

LOHMAN emphasized that his office is now carrying on an intensive fight against the adult delinquency which serves as model and temptation for youngsters. He also pointed out that the work of his juvenile bureau is an example of what a law enforcement agency can do to detect and apprehend juvenile criminals. The bureau has also succeeded in detecting potential juvenile delinquents and aided in the task of turning them into good citizens.

The sheriff declared that he had statistics as well as newspaper headlines to back his argument that teen-age crime is on the increase.

"During the past 5 years," explained Lohman, "the rate of known juvenile crime in Cook county increased 30.6%. And ½ of this increase was in 1954."

He emphasized the word "known" because the biggest difficulty law enforcement officers face in working with juveniles is the lack of adequate records. He said his force is working to eliminate that difficulty in the country towns under his supervision.

Lohman's men keep records of all investigations they make — not only when formal arrests are made and charges filed but when chronic school truancy is investigated and street fights broken up.

TO WORK exclusively with problems of youngsters, Lohman has set up an enlarged juvenile bureau under Dr. Benedict Mayer, administrative assistant to the sheriff, and Lt. Richard Boone.

Mayer is on leave from the faculty of Roosevelt university and Boone joined the staff after working with Lohman in the Illinois penitentiary system and in boys' reformatories in Illinois and Kentucky.

"We do not intend to coddle juvenile delinquents," said Lohman. "We expect private agencies to report to us any law violations they know of — but we will cooperate with them in their attempt to clear up the social and personal problems of delinquent children."

The conference Lohman has called for June 2 is designed to encourage a county-wide mobilization against juvenile crime. He hopes it will inspire communities to set up broad and intensive programs to fight delinquency in their own areas.

Theme of the conference is to be "Searchlights on Delinquency in Cook county."

Invited will be police, private agencies, church representatives, school officials, employers and others who work with children.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George B. Mahin, Executive Secretary Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois

Phony figures as to Illinois school building needs that can't be financed by local school districts are being used in Washington to promote federal aid for school construction, the taxpayers' federation of Illinois charged.

Claims in a federal report that over 185 million dollars is needed for school construction in Illinois in school districts that haven't the bonding power to build the schools themselves have been "greatly overestimated," according to a statement to the taxpayers' federation by M. M. Cruft, assistant director and building consultant in the office of the superintendent of public instruction who was in charge of compiling Illinois school district estimates of their building needs for this "report on the status phase of the school facilities survey" published by the U. S. office of education.

ILLINOIS SCHOOL problems commission estimates that a state school building authority with a revolving fund of $7,500,000 would be adequate to meet the needs of Illinois school districts which haven't enough unused bonding power to build the buildings themselves.

With federal estimates of Illinois needs some 2000 per cent off and with Illinois fully capable of meeting its own needs without "free money" from Washington, the taxpayers' federation is unalterably opposed to federal aid for education, including federal aid for school construction. Illinois taxpayers would benefit far more from reduced federal spending, the Federation says.

Illinois taxpayers won a victory in their own general assembly when the house roads and bridges committee killed a bill to authorize counties to levy a tax up to 6 cents per $100 of property value to match federal funds for county road purposes.

Traffic Deaths Drop

A moderate decrease in the nation's automobile accident toll in 1954 has been reported by Travelers insurance companies.

Traffic deaths totaled 35,500 last year compared with 38,500 in 1953. The injury count reached 1,960,000 compared with 2,140,000 in the previous year.

Excessive speed was the most dangerous driving mistake again in 1954, killing 12,380 persons. The total was 13,780. The injury total resulting from excessive speed remained about the same as the preceding year—659,000.

Drivers under 25 years of age were involved in more than 24 per cent of 1954's fatal accidents although they constitute only about 14 per cent of the total of all drivers.

The pedestrian record reflected improvement for the fourth consecutive year. Pedestrian deaths were reduced to 7,700 in 1954 compared with 8,600 in 1953.

Some Openings In Air Tech Training

"The technical training air force offers three types of training; resident, non-resident, and mobile. Mobile is unique in educational proceedure, in that it brings the classroom to the student," says Sergeant Walter Mohnsen, local air force recruiter.

Based at Chanute air force base, the 3499th mobile training wing keeps technicians all over the world posted on the latest developments in their career field, by bringing the classroom to the student wherever he may be stationed.

There the regularly assigned personnel attend classes in the same hangers, radio shops and radar stations where they will apply their new knowledge gained from the highly-skilled instructors.

Qualified personnel, interested in technical training, are urged to contact Sergeant Mohnsen at 1518 Park Place, Des Plaines.

Gems Of Thought

PUNCTUALITY

People who are late are often so much jollier than the people who have to wait for them.

—E. V. Lucas

Better be three hours too soon than one minute too late.

—William Shakespeare

I could never think well of man's intellectual or moral character, if he has habitually unfaithful to his appointments.

—Nathaniel Emmons

One backward step, one relinquishment of right in an evil hour, one faithless tarry, has torn the laurel from many a brow and repose from many a heart.

—Mary Baker Eddy

"Better late than never," is not half so good a maxim as "Better never late."

The "lighted window" in the dining area, above, is really a double-duty lighting arrangement. Secret of the lighting is in the hallway on the other side of the wall. A lighted valance, placed over the "picture window," made of corrugated glass lights both areas. Notice how the "window" is installed in sections with tiny shelves to display the homemaker's favorite collection of bird figurines.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Business Pace Continues To Improve

The nation's current business pace is continuing to improve, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago reports, as most business yardsticks are even now rivaling their previous highs. Total U.S. output of goods and services is just under the 370-billion dollar peak rate of mid-1953. Industrial production, too, is nearing its previous high.

Retail business, paced by auto sales, spurted sharply upward in December and has remained at high levels ever since. Home building, too, has scored significant recent advances. The number of housing starts are currently running one-fifth above a year ago.

WHAT'S MORE, the recent survey of consumer finances points to a high volume of retail sales in the coming months. Consumers are decidedly more optimistic about the general business situation than they were in early 1954. In addition, a larger proportion of persons interviewed anticipate income gains this year. Specific plans to buy furniture, appliances and other such durables are also more numerous than a year ago.

As to the outlook for auto sales, the survey indicates the proportion of families planning to buy new cars in 1955 is about the same as in early 1954. This suggests that the whopping year-to-year sales gains of a third or more recently chalked up may not be sustained.

Spending by business as well as consumers gives promise of reinforcing the improved economic picture. A recent survey of capital spending plans reveals the April-through-June period should witness a 5 per cent boost in plant and equipment outlays over the first-quarter's seasonally adjusted rate. This is in sharp contrast to the steady decline in capital spending since mid-1953. (BB

Bell & Howell Family Night

Three thousand Chicago area employees of Bell & Howell Company and their families Thursday, April 21, will hear a report from president Charles H. Percy on the company's newly established profit sharing retirement plan. The amount of $892,669, or 20% of the company's net operating profits before taxes for 1954, has been allocated to the new plan. The amount set aside in 1954 brings the total permanently set aside for employee retirement to $3,841,800.

The report will be part of the company's 7th annual family night to be held at the Aragon ballroom Thursday at 8 p.m. Percy will also report on the company's 1954 operations and the outlook for the balance of this year. Bell & Howell's sales last year reached $40,699,495, an all-time high, and the net earnings (after taxes) of $1,812 645 were the highest since 1947.

Dutch Elm Disease Can Be Stopped Here

Dutch elm disease is on the march in Illinois. There's no known cure for it, but you can help stop it from spreading by destroying all dead and dying elm trees on your farm, says J. C. Carter, plant disease specialist with the natural history survey.

From one known case in 1950, the disease has spread to 55 Illinois counties. It killed thousands of elms last year.

THE REASON for destroying dead and dying elms is to get rid of the breeding place of the bark beetles. The beetle usually breeds in weakened elms. The Dutch elm disease fungus grows in paths beetles make under the bark.

When the new-born beetles come out of the infested trees, they fly to healthy elms, taking the disease-causing fungus with them. They first start emerging in early May, so plan to have your clean-up before May 1.

CUT DEAD and dying trees and burn them on the spot. Don't let wood lie around for a few weeks, or the beetles will keep breeding and the young will fly to other trees. If you can't burn the tree ring where you cut it down, treat it with one per cent DDT in No. 2 fuel oil before hauling it away for burning.

Complete sanitation also demands that you strip and burn bark from the stumps of cut trees. Clean up any wood piles around the place that have dead elm wood in them.

DON'T FORGET the farm woodland when you start destroying weakened elms. Beetles from timber trees could light next in that shade tree in the front yard, bringing the disease with them.

If you'd like more information on how to recognize symptoms of Dutch elm disease and how to prepare samples for testing, write to the natural history survey, Urbana. The only way to tell Dutch Elm disease from other elm diseases is to have a test made.

National Sales Up

Net profit of National Tea Co. for the 12 weeks ended March 26 amounted to $1,608,890, after provision for Federal income tax of $1,615,000, H. V. McNamara, president, has announced. This compares with a profit of $1,246,295, after taxes of $1,385,000, for the 12 weeks and one day ended March 27, 1954.

McNamara reported the 12-week 1955 results are equivalent to 77 cents per share on 2,084,141 common shares currently outstanding, compared with 65 cents per share on 1,798,480 common shares outstanding last year at the close of the first quarter.

National sales for the first 12 weeks of 1955 were $127,895,475 up 11.36 per cent over last year's figure of $114,848,528. (BB

Soil Insecticides Will Pay For Themselves Here

Insecticides applied to the soil to help protect your corn crop will pay for themselves and then some, according to farmer experience and research in Illinois in the past two years.

J. H. Bigger, entomologist with the Illinois state natural history survey, says that returns averaged about twice the cost of the insecticides last year.

TREATED SOIL produced an average of 750 more plants to the acre than untreated soil in 11 comparisons. Theoretically it takes about 350 more plants to pay for the cost of treatment. Bigger reports that where the insecticide was properly used, the increases were much greater than that in many cases.

Aldrin and heptachlor were the two most popular chemicals. They were used at the rate of one pound of actual insecticide per acre when hill-dropped or banded in the row, and a pound and a half when broadcast.

THE INSECTICIDE must be covered at once if it is broadcast, Bigger warns. A delay of even one hour will reduce the value of treatment — in some cases enough to pay the cost of treating. Disking in is the best covering method.

Bigger says there are various methods of applying the chemicals. You can broadcast them either as spray or as granules in a fertilizer. You can get fertilizer with the insecticides already mixed in. You can use these fertilizers for row treating too. Special attachments are also available to mix the pure insecticide with the fertilizer at planting time.

Social Security Meeting Wednesday

Numerous questions have been asked relative to how Social Security applies to farm people so a meeting has been scheduled for Wednesday, April 27, at 8 p.m. in the farm bureau office, Arlington Heights, to discuss this subject.

Mrs. Mary Beard, assistant manager of the northwest district social security office will be here to discuss social security problems and how they apply to farm people. Any one having questions relative to how the law applies to your particular case should plan to be present, for a question and answer period will follow Mrs. Beard's presentation.

CARL F. MEES

Just a few days ago I received the "Travelers 1955 book of street and highway accident data." I noticed there were 35,500 persons killed in 1954. There were also 1,960,000 persons injured in 1954. How did this compare to 1953? There were 3,000 fewer killed in 1954 and 180,000 fewer injuries. But we still have a long way to go to really get a good record.

The thing that was really alarming was that 13,600 persons were killed by auto in 1953 and 1,321,040 persons were injured. Many of these deaths and injuries probably could have been avoided had we been a little more careful. I am sure many of us take unnecessary chances when driving our automobile.

WHEN ANALYZING the facts further I found that more than one third of the people killed and injured in auto accidents in 1954 were in accidents due to excessive speed.

Drivers under 25 years of age were involved in more than 24 per cent of 1954's fatal accidents although they constitute only about 14% of the total of all drivers.

Weekend crashes accounted for 13,980 killed and 678,000 injured. Thirty nine per cent of the deaths and 35 per cent of the injuries occured on Saturday and Sunday.

The pedestrian record reflected improvement for the 4th consecutive year. Crossing between intersections "jay walking" remains the chief cause of pedestrian deaths and injuries.

THE BOOKLET revealed also the following facts:

(a) Three out of four auto accidents happened to passenger cars driving in clear weather on dry roads.

(b) 78 per cent of the vehicles involved in fatal accidents were traveling straight ahead.

(c) Saturday was the most dangerous day of the week to drive.

(d) 1954 was the first year since 1949 to see a decrease in the death toll.

The legislature in Illinois which is in session now is considering a speed limit for Illinois. Many people are against the bill, but according to the statistics if speed is controlled it may help to cut down on our accidents.

Let's all resolve to drive more carefully in 1955.

HENRY MOEHLING, Charles Erickson, William Whiteside, John Bicket and I attended a meeting yesterday where animal health was discussed. Dr. Baley, veterinary department, University of Illinois stated that research works after day after day trying to find out answers to difficult problems. He stated that they found that clay pigeons, because of the coal tar pitch will kill hogs. This fact alone has saved many hog breeders serious losses.

He also stated simple sanitation methods were quite important. Keep purchased or sick animals isolated for 14 to 21 days. Have cattle tested for TB and Brucellosis. Vaccination helps keep animals healthy; quarantine females when giving birth to young. Keeping quarters dry and free from drafts are important factors to remember.

IN RECENT YEARS we have heard much about "tru-vac" for hog cholera. It has been used now for about 3 years. It will provide immunity safely now for up to 2½ years. Some of the advantages over the old serum and virus methods are:

1. There is no live virus used.
2. It does not produce terrific reactions that may bring about other diseases. "Ery Mune" a vaccine used against erysipelas in hogs has proven satisfactory, some of the advantages in using this vaccine are as follows:
1. Does not introduce the live germs on the place.
2. Sows can be vaccinated 4 to 6 weeks before farrowing time which will carry over to the pigs until weaning time.
3. "Ery Mune" can be used with "True Vac" at vaccination time.

A MEETING on Social Security and how it applies to farm people has been planned Wednesday, April 27, at 8 p.m. at the farm bureau office, Arlington Heights. All farm people are covered by social security this year for the first time.

Mrs. Mary Beard, assistant manager of the northwest district social security office will be present. She is well informed on the subject and should be able to answer questions. Why don't you plan to be present and get your questions answered from an authorative source.

Not Too Long

A farm economist at the University of Illinois says you may run the risk of damaging next year's market if you hold soybeans too long this spring.

Adopt Campaign To Move Heavy Pork Production

Promotional campaigns to move heavy pork production into consumption rather than into costly surplus storage were discussed at a luncheon sponsored by the Illinois agricultural association.

The IAA, statewide farm bureau organization with more than 202,000 members, called processing and distribution representatives to the meeting to talk over plans to sell more pork. The meeting was held at the Sherman hotel.

IAA president Otto Steffey told the group that about one-quarter of cash farm income in Illinois comes from hogs, and that in 1953 sales of hogs contributed about $489 million in gross income to farmers in the state.

KENNETH HOOD, assistant secretary of the American farm bureau federation, added that last fall's pig crop was 16 per cent above the previous year and that the 1955 spring crop was 8-10 per cent above last year.

"In the week ending March 26 of this year, the prices farmers received for hogs averaged $17.32," Hood said, "In the same week in 1954, those prices averaged $26.92."

Steffey pointed out that "with the plentiful supply of hogs, pork will continue to be a good buy for the American housewife. Our organization is particularly anxious to see this pork move through regular channels into consumption without government intervention."

A SIMILAR promotional campaign for beef a few years ago when that product was in heavy supply was successful, Hood said.

Vernon Schwaegerle, American Meat Institute, told the gathering of some of the media for promoting pork consumption and what could be accomplished through an aggressive merchandising campaign. (Fm

Agriculture Open House Set For May 14

The college of agriculture at the University of Illinois is inviting all high school seniors who are interested in agriculture to visit the campus in Urbana on Saturday, May 14.

Students and faculty members will take the visiting seniors on tours of the campus and farms, according to H. W. Hannah, associate dean.

This open house will give the visitors information on housing, scholarships and courses of study they can get if they choose to attend the college of agriculture. They will also have a chance to meet some people they will be associated with if they come to college in Urbana.

Hannah says plans for the program will include information on career opportunities and short courses in agriculture in addition to the subject matter offered in a four-year college course.

Ask your county farm adviser or your vocational agriculture teacher for further information on open house, or write directly to the college of agriculture, Urbana, if you have questions. Further program details will be available later.

Ronald Paddock On Farm TV Show

Accurate record keeping can pay off for farmers as much as cost accounting has for industry. One farmer who knows what good management can do is Ronald Paddock of Lakemoor in Lake county.

Paddock will tell how accurate records have boosted his income on the "Farmtown, U.S.A." television show on Sunday, April 24. The farm program is a CBS educational feature presented in cooperation with the Illinois agricultural association and the Pure Milk association. It may be seen each Sunday at 2 p.m. on WBBM-TV, channel 2.

Paddock, who farms 270 acres, has a herd of 70 Holstein dairy cows and a 300-hen laying flock. Modern methods are an integral part of his farming operation, and his bulk milk cooling tank and barn dryer for hay have increased his farm efficiency.

Paddock maintains careful farm management and dairy herd improvement association records, and reports he wouldn't farm without them now. Records can reveal which cows aren't producing enough and which laying hens to cull from his flock.

A former president of the Lake County farm bureau, Paddock is a director of the Lake-Cook Farm Supply company and the Wauconda National bank. The Paddocks have 4 children.

Grade A Milk

A University of Illinois veterinarian reminds dairy farmers that all Grade A milk must come from brucellosis-free herds by July 1, 1955.

Midwestern Farmer Finds Night Lighting Helps Hogs Gain Weight

By IRA MILLER
Farm Electrification Bureau

Ever hear of an accident that benefited anybody? Once in a blue moon it happens, and when it does it makes news. This occurred in the case of a mid-west farmer who accidentally left the lights burning in his hog house one evening after he had completed his round of late chores.

When he returned to turn them off, however, he forgot his annoyance. The hogs seemed to be eating and drinking in shifts, with about 25% of them making trips to the automatic feeders and waterers at one time. He watched the performance for 45 minutes and left—leaving the lights on.

Now the hog house is illuminated every night throughout the year. For later tests showed that hogs which did not have an added after-dark incentive to eat, drink and get ready for market were slower to put on gains than those in the night-lighted house. Thermostatically controlled electric hog waterers provide water at the right temperature during cold weather.

This farmer's sleeping and feeding area covers approximately 5,000 square feet. Illumination is provided only at night by three 100 watt lamps for 150 hogs. Lights are located so as to provide brighter illumination over feeding and watering areas than over sleeping quarters.

Actually a 24-hour feeding and watering schedule is sound, since a hog's stomach is smaller than in the case of other commercial animals and they must eat and drink at frequent intervals. This being the situation, it is natural that they should enjoy a longer period to participate in their favorite pastime.

NIGHT LIGHTED HOGS . . . add weight, says this mid-west farmer.

Observations during the last few years show that night lighting of hogs not only brings them to marketable weight sooner, but also prevents crowding after dark in sleeping areas and prevents fighting at the customary first feeding in the morning. Also it reduces the danger of pneumonia, and enables a farmer to keep more hogs in the same space. In the summer, hogs will eat and drink more under lights in the cool of the night than during hot days. Night lighting feeding programs can be started when pigs are 2½ months old.

Explains Milk In New School Lunch Program

Milk is one of the most important parts of school lunch programs set up to prompt the health of boys and girls.

So reads a new University of Illinois circular called "More Milk in Schools." Written by R. W. Bartlett, farm economist, and Marie Harrington of the St. Louis Dairy Council, it gives four reasons why milk fits so well in a school lunch program:

1. IT IS A GOOD, nourishing food upon which an economic and safe diet can be built.
2. Most children, as well as adults, drink less milk than nutritionists say they need for good health.
3. It is a common food, easy for schools to obtain.
4. It is delivered to schools in ready-to-serve form.

The circular says that most studies show that children drink far less than the recommended four glasses of milk a day.

FOR 20 YEARS the government has encouraged the use of more milk through school lunches. In 1952-53, average annual consumption was about 14 quarts per pupil, or around one-third of the goal of 45 quarts of the federal-state school-lunch program.

Under the old program schools that serve milk get only one cent a half pint from the federal government and another cent from the state. Under the new program, the federal government pays four cents a half pint for milk used above that used under the old program. Schools that have not had the program get three cents a half pint.

Any grade or high school, states the circular, can get into the program simply by contacting the county superintendent of schools. Under the 1954 Agricultural act there is no limit to the amount of milk a child can drink during school hours.

Repair Farm Equipment Ahead Of Planting Time

It's part of good planning to check farm machinery repair needs well ahead of the busy spring planting, advises farm adviser Carl F. Mees.

You can avoid production headaches and prevent accidents if you will make needed repairs and replace worn parts before planting starts. It's not only dangerous to operate equipment in faulty condition, but sometimes a breakdown will lead to a serious accident indirectly because an operator is out of patience and in too much of a hurry.

EARLY INSPECTION and servicing of equipment is the first step in safe operation. Check your tractor, plows, cultivators and planters to be sure the seats, brakes, steering, clutches and other controls are in good condition.

After replacing worn parts, be sure all exposed revolving parts on machinery are properly shielded. Make sure hitches are in good condition. Provide lighting on equipment, particularly if you are going to drive or pull it on the highway. Check fuel lines and wiring systems, and equip your tractors with fire extinguishers.

Remove grease, dirt and trash from platforms and steps so that you can have safe footing when you operate your equipment.

Parasites Take One Animal In Twenty

Parasites take one animal in twenty. Live stock parasites are stealing more than $1 billion a year from the $15 billion live stock and meat industry, reports National Live Stock Producer, America's leading live stock publication.

The loss amounts to about 5 cents on every $1. Taking the industry as a whole, one animal in 20 is "given away" to external or internal live stock parasites.

Each segment of the industry suffers in different degree. Swine producers who raise an average $384 billion in hogs lose about $279 million to parasites.

THE CATTLE industry with an average annual production of 19.5 billion pounds does not realize 2 billion pounds because of parasitic infection.

Sheep producers lose about 25 per cent of their annual production and the value of work days lost in horses and mules amounts to 2 minutes for every working hour due to parasites.

Most of these losses are preventable by known control methods and techniques and the magazine advises farmers to adopt better control methods to prevent these losses.

Antique Show At Aurora Wednesday

Clever Clover 4-H Club Meets April 15

The April 15 meeting of the Clever Clover 4-H club was held at the home of Karen Adkisson. At a special election, Diane Stade was elected treasurer to replace Carole Huskey, who has been confined to her bed because of illness. Linda Strait was elected parliamentarian and Sue Shogren sergeant at arms.

Demonstrations were given at the meeting as follows: Betty Shulse talked about a cooking school she had attended; Laurie Nielsen on threading a sewing machine; Karen Adkisson demonstrated baking powder biscuits; Diane Stade gave a health talk; and Betty Shulse concluded with a graham cracker crust.

An officers' program held at the farm bureau April 14 was attended by Karen Adkisson, Kathy Huskey, Mary Nielsen and Betty and Mary Jane Shulse.

Snappy 4-H Club Has Demonstrations

The fifth meeting of the Snappy 4-H club was held April 12, after school, at St. Peter school. A demonstration was given by Judith Rolfs and Patty Walt. After the meeting, refreshments were served. Since it was a warm day, members played games outside as suggested by Dolores Thon, recreation chairman.

Pasture rotation provides a balanced feed supply for livestock all year.

The 4-H Corner

North Cook 4-H officers training school was held Thursday, April 14, with 100 officers of local clubs present. The entire evening was spent on the subject of officers training with groups divided into, presidents, vice presidents, reporters, secretary-treasurers and recreation chairmen, according to the offices held in local clubs.

Dave Nesset served as discussion leader for the presidents, and vice presidents. Marlene Krambeer was the discussion leader for reporters; Doris Rudolph for the secretary-treasurers and Judy Ahmer for recreation chairmen. Following these discussions the entire group re-convened and reports were given by the secretary appointed in each group.

DURING THE PAST WEEK Robert Herrmann, leader of Medinah Ramblers, was in with a group of enrollment cards from his club and stated the club was well under way towards a prosperous 4-H club year.

Pete Cirella, leader of Arlington Ranchers, dropped in to leave some enrollment cards and stated some of his members were looking for Purebred sheep and feeder hogs. If you have some or know of any one who might have them, contact Pete Cirella, P.O. Box 36, Arlington Heights.

Albert Koskela of Palatine, leader of the new 4-H club held an organization meeting April 13 with a nucleus of a dozen boys present. If there are other boys and girls in this area interested in 4-H club work Mr. Koskela asks they contact him. Phone Palatine 886.

BILL LINNEMAN was in one day this week stating he was more than well pleased with the turnout in interest in 4-H club work in his club. Mr. Linneman and Arthur Busse are the leaders of Elk Grove 4-H club.

SOME OF YOU may be wondering whether you will be eligible to apply for a college scholarship. John H. Bicket, assistant farm adviser, reports there will be various scholarships available for which you may apply if you plan to enter the University of Illinois, college of agriculture in the fall of 1955.

Each year your county has available two scholarships, one in agriculture and one in home economics Each one covers tution for the regular four year course in the college of agriculture to the amoun of $130 a year and $32.50 per summer session, making a total of $617.50 for 8 sessions and 3 summer sessions.

YOU MAY OBTAIN one of these scholarships by taking and passing with the highest average. The examinations are given by the county superintendent of schools on the last Saturday in April. If you plan to write the examination you should contact the superintendent of schools in advance.

Another scholarship is available for children of veterans of World War 1 and 2. This is also given by the county superintendent of schools. If you qualify as children of veterans of these two wars you are eligible to apply for the scholarship.

CASH SCHOLARSHIPS are given by Sears Roebuck, Kroger, Smith-Douglas Company and the Dairy Industry of Illinois. These cash scholarships range in value from $200 to $400 a year to a flat cash scholarship of $1000.

If you are interested in attending the college of agriculture, I would suggest that you contact me at this office, your superintendent of schools, the principal of your school or C. D. Smith, assistant dean, college of agriculture, Urbana. Each year there are scholarships available that are unused because of the lack of applicants.

DOES THIS MEAN YOU?

WANTED—1 or 2 good carpenters, or unusually good handy men who seek an opportunity to get into the building business for themselves. With profitable contracts, construction capital, shop and office facilities already set up, this offer is truthfully the "once in a life time" chance seldom found. However, no fast talking "out to make a quick buck" type need apply. If you are the ambitious hardworking man who knows that as a boss you may have to work even harder and longer than the men you employ—and if you are willing to put in that hard work because you have doubtless known of others certainly no smarter than you who have made fortunes in this business— and you have felt that somehow maybe someday your big chance might come—THIS IS IT! Write a letter for a personal interview. Tell something about yourself. Why you are the man and what you are prepared to do about it. Your reply will remain confidential and be given every consideration. Address F. Builder, Box D-58, c/o Paddock Publications, Arlington Heights. (4/28

Offer Civil Defense Identification Tags

National Food Stores have announced cooperation with the federal defense administration and the Pet Milk company in a national campaign to encourage the wearing of civil defense identification tags by all citizens.

Under the program, National Food Stores and Pet Milk company, as a public service, will make standard civil defense identification tags, similar to the familiar army 'dog tags," available to citizens throughout this area for a slight handling charge, and at no profit to either.

The handling charge will include printing on the tags of necessary identification information such as the wearer's name and the name and address of the person to be notified in an emergency. Official order forms for the tags are now on display in all National Food Stores throughout the middle west. The milk company will handle requests for mailing.

The Editor's column

by S. R. PADDOCK

We feel like a housewife who has gotten her spring housecleaning out of the way early. Milburn Bros. started the widening of Campbell street at our end.

With all light and telephone poles removed, our block is about the darkest street in town. Hope there will be no delay in the installation of those mercury lights.

Mt. Prospect business men tell us that a wave of adult delinquency has broken out there in the form of shoplifting. One woman helped herself to eight pairs of stockings. When caught, she offered to pay for the stockings if she could pick out her size.

The storekeeper consented, but the woman returned them the next day, asking for a refund. Another shoplifter was not very happy because the business man she attempted to rob, insisted upon telling her husband.

Those hundreds of new residents are not immune to hospital care. Besides, the adjoining hospitals do not have an inexhaustible supply of beds.

Representative Sprague told a group of suburban editors last week that minority representation should be recognized in a democratic government. He favors minority representation in the legislature in every house district. He said that except on strictly party legislation Democratic and Republican members of a district join forces for the welfare of all their constituents.

Here is a good plank that both Arlington Heights groups missed in the campaign, "lower taxes." An Arlington industrialist told us Tuesday morning, before the votes were counted, that he is going to move his plant out of Arlington. "Too high taxes," he said.

We know that the winners in Tuesday's election will be looking in this column for the editor's opinion on the results. The majority has spoken. That should be enough for all of us.

Our congratulations go to those winners.

An Arlington Heights woman called us up Wednesday and wanted to know if she could get an immediate reduction on her current water bill. We told her that the new members of the board could not make the promised reduction until they actually took office May 3.

We have great respect for the plan commission of Arlington Heights. We stayed with that body Monday night until 11:30 while they argued and argued over final approval of Westgate Unit No. 2.

The subdivider had done everything that the board had requested but it took an executive session before a majority of the members could reach an agreement.

Some of the members fought long and hard, but when defeat came their way they smilingly bowed to the wishes of the majority.

We hope the defeated candidates in Arlington Heights and Mt. Prospect show the same democratic spirit.

Arlington electorate who drove their cars to the polls Tuesday could "vote for free." Hoods were placed over the meters adjacent to the village hall.

A lot of praise throughout the United States has been showered upon Jonas E. Salk, who developed the vaccine against polio. A lot of praise is likewise due our local doctors who have volunteered their services for the inoculations.

It is an example of how the medical profession is ever ready to step in when an emergency arises. On the eve of the polio season, such an emergency exists.

As one who is acquainted with the red tape that will exist in municipal government as long as there are engineers and lawyers, we hope those who put into office the Civic Service party will not expect them to make good on their campaign planks within a few weeks.

Some of those problems have been facing the village for a long time.

Arlington Heights Kiwanis club engaged in its customary election-time "get-out-the-vote" campaign by using a bit of paint upon the sidewalks calling attention to April 19 election.

Voting was heavy throughout the day despite the adverse weather as citizens of Rolling Meadows elected their first officials. Closest to the camera in this line of voters were Fred Schultz (extreme right) and Bob Higgins, aspirants for the office of mayor. Both went down to defeat as John Northcote was elected first holder of that job in the new city. —Staff Photo

Set Kindergarten Registration Dates At Palatine Schools

Kindergarten registration for Community Consolidated School District No. 15, Palatine, will be held May 3 and 4 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 to 3 p.m. in each of 3 schools, as follows:

Children who live south of the railroad tracks should be registered at the Paddock school; those north of the tracks at the Oak Street school; and those residing in Rolling Meadows at the Kimball Hill school.

To be eligible for kindergarten in September, 1955, the child's birth date must be on or before December 1, 1950. A birth certificate, or baptismal record, must be shown at the time of registration. Registration fee is $10. Information regarding transportation, health examination and preparations for a good start in school will be given at the time of registration.

More than 450 kindergarten children will enroll in the Palatine schools this spring. It is important, threfore, that as many as possible be enrolled May 3 and 4. Members of the Parent-Teacher Association will be on hand at each of the schools to help with the registration.

First, Second Graders at All Schools Given Vaccine

First and second graders in Palatine schools were the first in this area to receive shots of the new Salk vaccine for polio. Children in the public and Catholic schools received their first shots Wednesday, and Lutheran school first and second graders will receive their shots today, Thursday.

Palatine doctors, with the assistance of members of the Palatine Registered Nurses' club, gave the injections. All children receiving shots now will receive their second injections within 3 or 4 weeks. First and second graders absent from school at this time will be given their injections in the near future.

The third shot is to be given 7 months from the date of the first injection, and this shot will be given by the family doctor at his office and a fee will be charked.

ARRANGEMENTS to administer the vaccine to Palatine students were made last Friday when local doctors, representatives of the public, Catholic and Lutheran schools and members of the Registered Nurses' club met to work out the details. All first and second graders were given parental consent forms to be signed by their parents and returned to school, which authorized their receiving the injections.

At the present time the supply of polio vaccine available for purchase by doctors is rather limited, so it is somewhat uncertain when children, other than first and second graders, will be able to get their injections from their family doctors. Some doctors are listing the children for polio injections at their offices. Parents will be notified by phone when the vaccine is available.

Break Ground Soon For Westgate Shopping Center

The Westgate Park & Shops, one of the first shopping center developments to be located in Arlington Heights, was announced today by Herbert H. Heyman, partner in Landau and Perlman, Chicago business property developers. Construction will start within 45 days on the center and it is scheduled to open early next year.

In addition to the 12 stores planned, Westgate will also include a 2,500 square foot medical center with space for approximately 15 doctors and dentists.

To be located on a 4 acre site on the southeast corner of 2 main thoroughfares — Campbell ave. and Wilke rd.—it will have 45,000 square feet of rentable area. According to surveys, 33,424 persons live within a 3 mile area which includes the Rolling Meadows homes development, directly west of the center, and Arlington Heights and its new Westgate No. 1 and Westgate No. 2 subdivisions.

THERE WILL BE parking space for 350 cars in the center on the front and east and west sides of the buildings. Almost 4 times the amount of space of the buildings proper will be devoted to parking, trees and shrubbery and canopied walks. Of a modern design, Westgate will have a weather protecting walkway around the front and sides of the center.

A lease has been signed by Landau and Perlman with the National Tea Company which will occupy the largest store in the center, approximately 12,000 square feet. The air-conditioned store will have a fresh baked goods department, self-service meats, magic-eye doors, and will feature one of the chains largest frozen foods sections.

W. A. Hornsby Co., Inc., will operate the eighth store in its chain of northern Illinois variety stores in the center. The 5,000 square foot store will be completely self-service. Decor of the store interior will be designed to suit the modern exterior of the center.

Dist. 15 Will Need 97 School Classrooms Next September

School board members of Palatine Consolidated School District No. 15 received from Supt. Jordan last Wednesday night a picture of the school district's future that is very disquieting to the men who are charged with the responsibility of providing the school rooms and the teachers.

The dads and mothers of the hundreds of families within the elementary school district are happy over the existence of their offsprings, but it is up to the school board to find the money to educate those children.

Their increasing number is creating a school and teacher problem that cannot be just shoved off.

Palatine Elementary school system will need 97 school rooms by next September, to adequately care for the expected 2970 pupils which will be an increase of over 800. With the completition of 3 additional units at Rolling Meadows school, 82 rooms owned by the district will be available.

To provide the additional 15 rooms, all available space iin the addition to St. Paul church now under construction, has been rented, also 6 rooms in the high school building.

Looking into the future, Supt Jordan presented a proposed building utilization and construction program, based on the development of new projects pleced before the local plan commission and the county building department.

The first stage of that program will provide 83 additional classrooms, including 2 new junior high schools with 42 rooms, and 4 new elementary and kindergarten schools, providing 61 classrooms. Three of the schools would be of the low cost type of construction.

The only ray of sunshine in the picture is the expected contribution of $300 a home by the developers. If Kimball Hill development continues at this expected rate, a half million dollars from that organization would be $100,000 short of paying for the junior high and elementary school for Rolling Meadows Unit No. 2.

While $600,000 could be expected from the Reskin development, school building costs for schools in that area is estimated at $1,317,000. That amount would include a Junior high school for all Palatine pupils residing north of the railroad tracks.

Mr. Jordan estimates the cost of the second stage of development, about 1960, would be of elementary school buildings, all low cost type of construction costing $600,000.

Estimated future enrollments which would require all this building is 1956-57, 4170; 1957-58, 4800; 1958-59, 5240; 1959-60, 5450.

But that is not all of the story. As these figures are being compiled word comes from realtors that 3 additional Palatine farms have been sold for subdivision purposes.

CANCER — MAN'S CRUELEST ENEMY!

This year 200,000 American people will die from cancer! Men, women and children—no age is free from cancer.

Here is an enemy that strikes silently, seldom indicating its beginnings by the familiar warnings of disease—pain, fever, a run-down feeling or prostration. By the time pain is felt from cancer, it can rarely be treated effectively.

Cancer strikes one in four. Out of every sixteen people, four will have cancer—and three will die. One could have been saved by early diagnosis, but the other two will die of types of cancer that future research must control. These odds are terrifying!

There is something all can do right now—put our dollars in the fight against this dread disease. Funds already contributed have made possible, in just a few years, more progress than in all previous history. Education, service and research constitute the attack on cancer—and the attack depends on gifts.

You may help the eause by giving to the volunteer who calls on you, the amount you would like to contribute or you may write a check payable to the American Cancer Society, and send it to the American Cancer Society in care of Arlington Heights National Bank, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

The American people have never been beaten in a war by an enemy we could SEE—let's give our doctors, scientists and research experts the ammunition needed to find and stamp out this killer.

May you be rewarded most generously for whatever you are able to give.

Girl Scouts Ready to Sell Cookies

Girl Scouts—seniors, intermediates and brownies — in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Prospect Heights, Rolling Meadows and Wheeling will begin selling boxes of cookies tomorrow and Saturday.

There are about 1600 girls in these neighborhoods of District IV of the Girl Scout council of Northwest Cook county, and they are joining their sister scouts for this first coucil-wide cookie sale.

The boxes contain sandwich cookies with chocolate, lemon, vanilla and custard fillings and the saesgirls will point out that at least one of the flavors will appear to every member of a family, and most individuals will enjoy the whole assortment. The cookies are priced at 40c a box.

A good program for Girl Scouts in the whole area is made possible by council-planning which includes adequate training for volunteer leaders. Camping, an important phase of the total program, is receiving concentrated thought and planning now as arrangements are being made for summer day-camping in 6 forest preserve locations and for 2-week-session camping at Hickory Hill near Edgerton, Wis.

All of this continuing effort for a fine program for all ages of Scouts in this area will be aided by purchases of Girl Scout cookies Friday and Saturday and all next week. Girls will have their cookies with them when they approach prospective customers and will deliver and collect when the sale is made.

The smiling campaigners honked their horns, rang bells and shouted greetings to residents and people throughout the area were brought to their doors by the sound of the approaching parade as it came down their street.

Each Full Ticket Divides Honors for City Aldermen

More than 1,200 residents of the new city of Rolling Meadows registered their choices at the polls Tuesday, April 19, in the first election for city officials. The new city officers elected by the people are John Northcote, mayor; Eda Zimmerman, city clerk; John Nash, city treasurer; and Charles McCormick, police magistrate. All of the city officers elected were members of the Independent Non-Partisan group with the exception of John Nash who ran on the Civic Progress ticket.

Residents seemingly indicated a "middle of the road" policy for their city government by electing half of their new aldermen from each of the two parties presenting a slate in the election. William Hickey, Richard Faber, Richard Roeing and Kenneth Goodpasture of the Civic Porgress Party were elected as aldermen. Representative of the Independent Non-Partisan group elected as aldermen were Wing E. Groves, Albin Piekarski, Edward Westphal and Bi White.

FIRST ELECTION returns, based on the count of "straight" tickets showed Fred Schultz, Civic Progress candidate for mayor, to be well in the lead. At that count Mr. Schultz had a return of 325 to 195 for John Northcote. Later in the evening as counting progressed Mr. Northcote gradually gained, and the final tally for the office of mayor was John Northcote, 511; Fred Schultz, 462; and Robert Higgins, independent, 222. The greatest number of votes received by any candidate for all offices was drawn by Eda Zimmerman in her bid for the office of city clerk. Mrs. Zimmerman received a total of 649 votes, followed closely by Charles McCormick who received 646 votes in his election as police magistrate.

During the counting of the ballots two sound trucks supplied by the Home Owners' association and Robert Higgins, mayoral candidate, toured through the city giving the results as they were posted. As the count progressed the figures were posted at the window of the polling place, and a crowd of residents gathered outside to watch the returns.

Following his election as mayor of the new city of Rolling Meadows, John Northcote, Independent Non-Partisan candidate, issued the following statement:

"To say I am very gratified seems inadequate. I know that my election was due to the hard work of a lot of people; and on behalf of myself and the other people on our slate I want to sincerely thank everyone who worked for and supported us. Particular thanks is due to the many people who allowed us to hold meetings in their homes. The endless hours of work and effort which were devoted to the campaign by Pete Keller, Les Traub and Ken Schroeder, our campaign managers, were instrumental in our success.

"I sincerely feel that everyone who was elected to city office is very capable. I am sure that with the proper initiative, desire and willingness to work we can't miss. We have an excellent chance to develop a city government best suited to our needs. It will take time, but I feel the next four years will be very successful years.

"I am sorry that everyone could not win. There were a lot of fine people running for office, and I certainly hope they will become candidates again in future elections.

"The cooperation of the people of the city is going to be extremely important. We will certainly appreciate the response of residents to needed volunteer service, committee work, investigations, and so on. No city government can be any better than the people are willing to make it. The people have expressed their feelings wonderfully well in this election, and we know they will continue with the same high interest they have shown to date."

The results follow:

For mayor: John S. Northcote, 511; Fred W. Schultz Jr., 462; Robert T. Higgins, 222.

For city clerk: Eda F. Zimmerman, 649; Florence Nyblin, 502.

Homeowners Annual Meeting Sunday

The second annual meeting of the Rolling Meadows Home Owners' association will be held Sunday at the girls' gymnasium of the Arlington Heights high school, at 1 p.m.

The meeting is open to all residents of Rolling Meadows whether or not they belong to the Home Owners' association. The meeting will be opened with an invocation given by Rev. Nelson Ringsmuth, pastor of the Community church.

Brief reports will be given by the officers and directors of the association. These reports will cover the achievements and problems confronted during the first year of the association's organization. The featured guest speaker will be Kimball Hill, developer of Rolling Meadows. In the light of the recent city election and the controversy regarding lot size reduction Mr. Hill's presentation should be of interest to everyone.

AN IMPORTANT phase of the meeting will be devoted to the nominations of officers and directors for the coming year. Nominations will first be presented by the chairman of the nominating committee. All association members who have declared themselves for office will be listed by the committee. Following this report nominations will be accepted from the floor. The only requirement for eligibility of nominees is paid-up membership in the association. In addition each nominee must be a home owner of legal age.

The election for officers and directors of the association will be held at the community barn May 7. All homeowners of legal age will be eligible to participate in the election for representatives of the association for the coming year.

The Home Owners' association sincerely hopes all residents will attend the annual meeting. Plans have been made to provide babysitting service at the high school, and 2 cilassrooms have been engaged by the association for this purpose. This should make it possible for all members of the family to attend the meeting without the worry of what to do with the children. (KF
